"There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
A time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes, III, 1-9

Now is but the end of the beginning. The ridge is mounted; before us the summit lies unconquered.

Pausing on the threshold of the future, we recall that the labors of many have fashioned our yesterdays as worthy foundations for all our todays, all our tomorrows. Young, yielding, we have made mistakes, but our future will be the tribute of our gratitude.

We have had unforgettable moments. They were not great, for we have not yet had the time to achieve greatness; yet they were not trivial, for they will always be remembered. The shadows of those moments are recaptured in these pages.

Thankful for the opportunity of tomorrow's promise, tempered by the wisdom of yesterday's experience, we present the 1966 ACCOLADE.

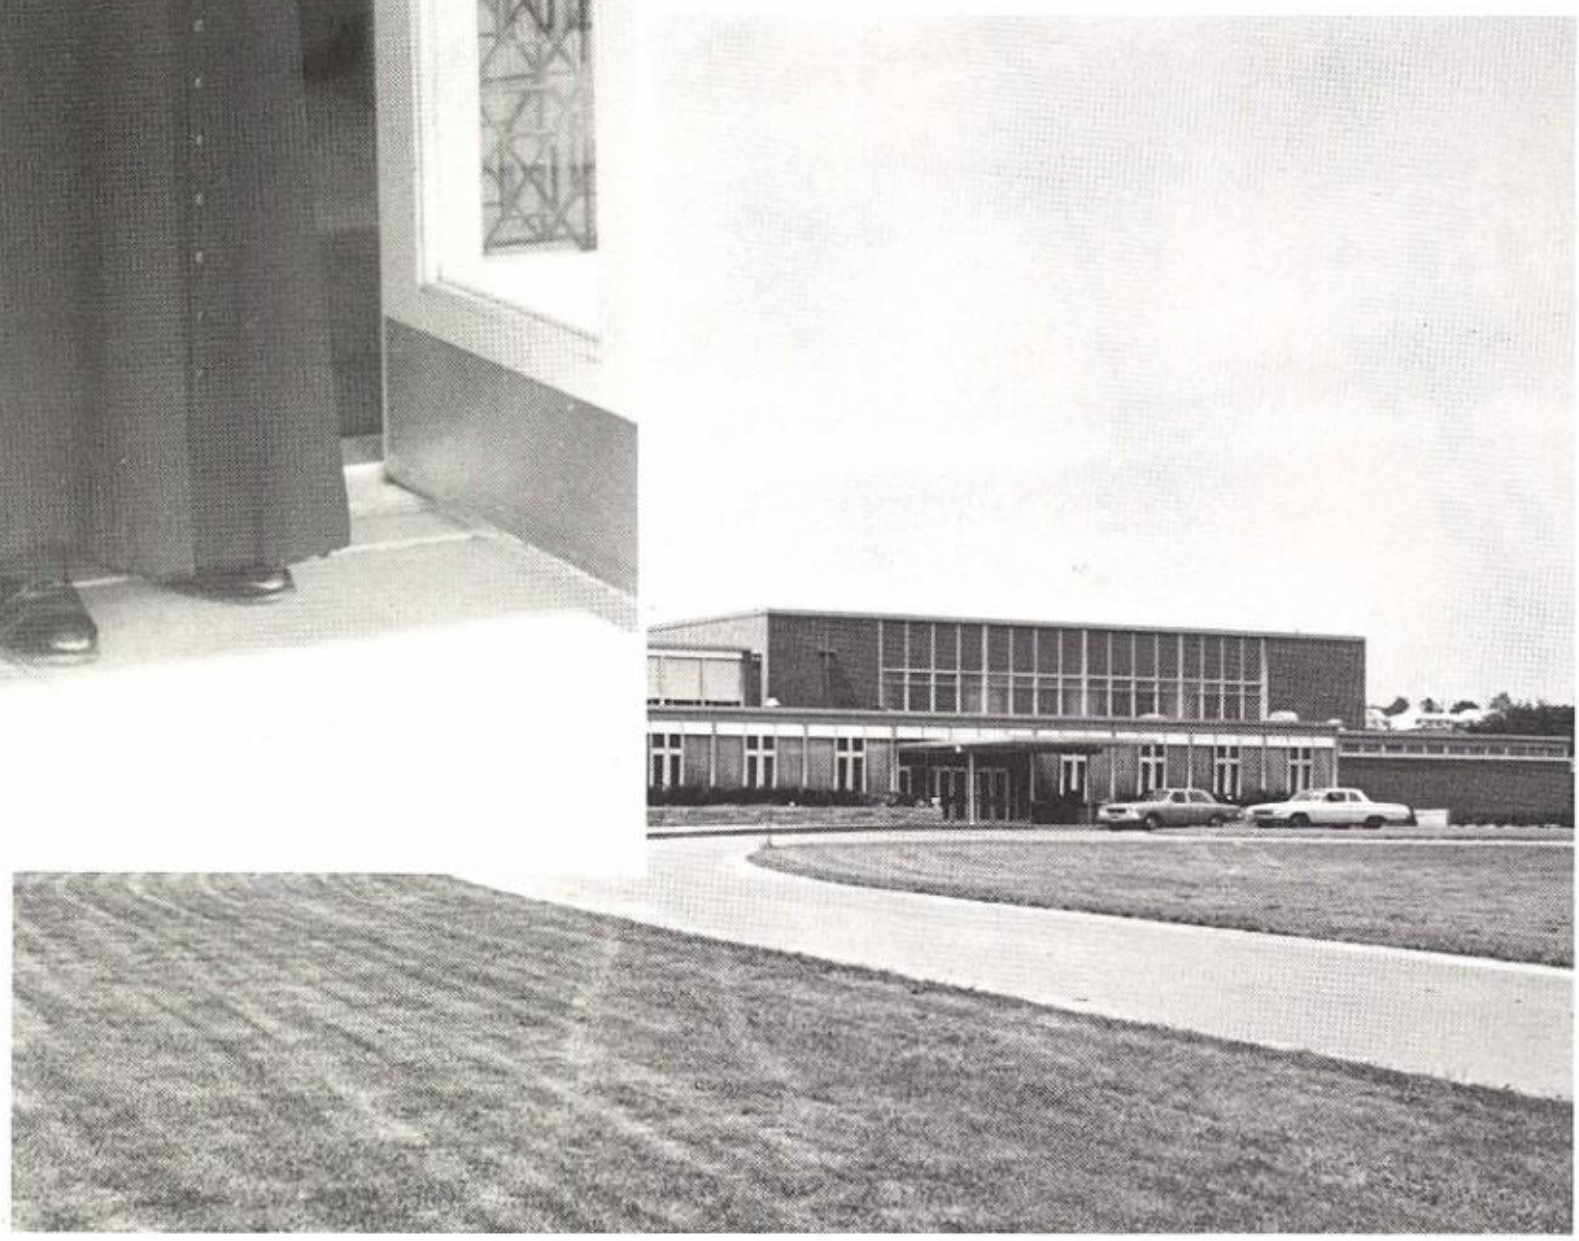
FATHER PLUMMER

Though a member of a group, each student is a person in his own right. Following this policy, Father Plummer has based his administration on the individual student. A wise counselor, Father has always welcomed an opportunity to help us with problems and to listen to our suggestions.

We shall ever be grateful for the energy and tireless efforts which he has cheerfully expended on our behalf. We owe a debt of gratitude to Father who has so ably planned the hours of our high school years that each second might be a worthwhile addition to our store of memories and knowledge.

Thus the members of the senior class thank you, Father Plummer, and offer a sincere prayer for your continued health and happiness, that future classes might enjoy the advantages of your labors.



MONSIGNOR KLINE

Our first two years of high school must stimulate and inspire us that we may desire to continue our schooling. Monsignor Kline has performed an excellent job in assembling a challenging scholastic program, which instilled us with a curiosity demanding satisfaction through education.

We thank him for his more important efforts to develop character and awareness of Christian principles in all of us. Our loyalty to these tenets will be our final proof of gratitude. Our tuture success can be greatly attributed to Monsignor's plan which aims at the production of good Catholics and educated citizens.

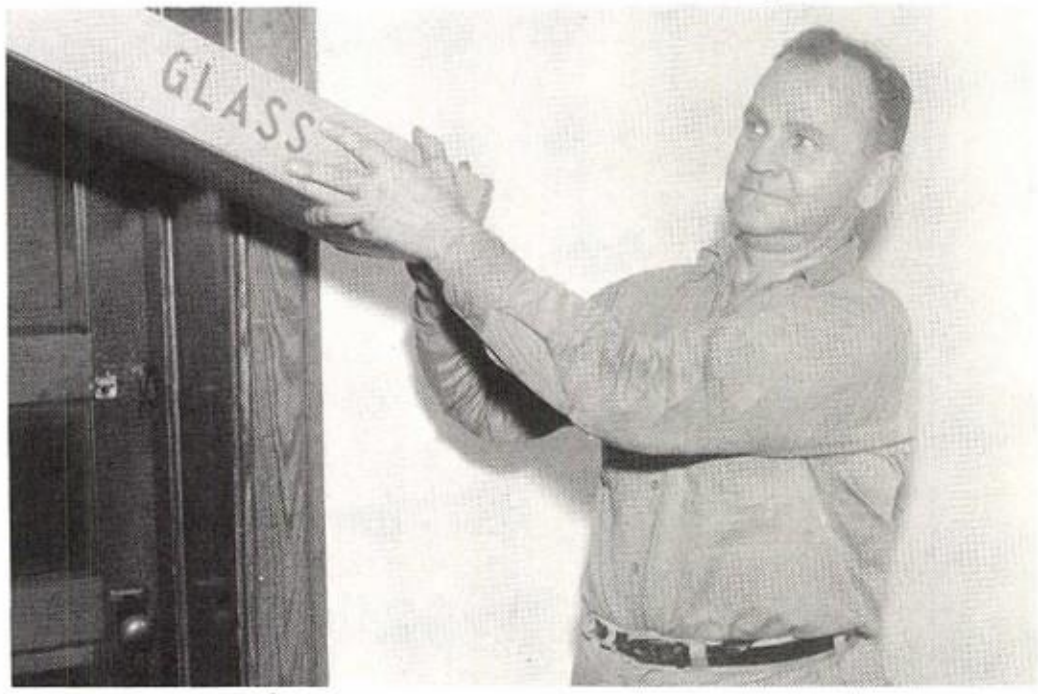
"But I don't need football insurance", Lona Lou Benney protests to Sixth Avenue secretary Barbara Mollica.



To the Sixth Avenue maintenance director, Harvey Stoltz, a biology lag shipment means an eleventh commandment, "Thou shall not break."

In a sheltered nook cooks Carrie Frederick and Mary Ryan ready lunch for the Freshman-Sophomore lineup.

There is a new world to conquer, new emotions to be felt, new friends to make. Is it a wonder that knees tremble and palms sweat? The security of childhood is laid aside to make room for the uncertainty of adolescence, that is progress. There is progress, too, in education. But this is only a beginning. There will be more new worlds to conquer, more new friends to make, and many more new vistas to be opened; you have just begun.

A beginning has been made. No longer do you tremble, now there is confidence in your steps. You know your way around and you are proud. This is progress, for man cannot move ahead if he is too timid to take the first step forward. This year, too, your horizons are broadened by the pursuit of Biology and the study of a foreign language. You have taken the second step. The challenge has been met half-way. It is now up to you to meet the challenge head-on and conquer it.

Senior prom, Senior banquet, and Junior party, successful because of the able direction of the Junior Class Officers and Advisors: President, Timothy Sigrist; Secretary, Sally Stevens; Treasurer, Jane Gallager; Vice-President, Robert Krastek; Advisors: James Roberts, Frank Genovese, Eileen Langguth, Mary Jo Bryne, Mary Ann Hughes, Robert Gerhart, and Jeffrey Mueller.

The cycle has begun again. Once more timid feet beat the hallways of a new building. Knees tremble and palms sweat. The self-confidence of the past year is drowned in the flood of a new system, a new school, and a heavy schedule. Extracurricular activities are encouraged as character-builders. Busy moments rush us headlong into senior year and graduation.

A Time To Gather

Leaders, qualified and competent, the Student Council Officers, Recording Secretary, Claudia Fiore; Vice President, Dom Manocchio; Corresponding Secretary, Linda Minori; and President, John McKeon, convert ideas into action.

Student Government

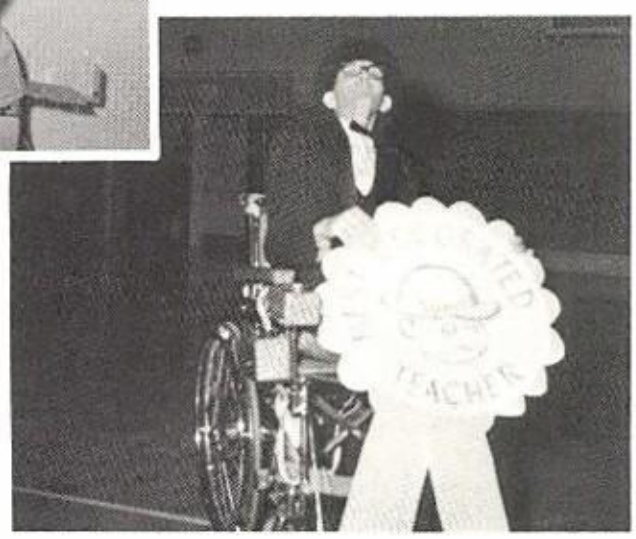
For the Executive Board, James Reilly, John Naperkoski, Council moderator, Sister Marie Anthony, Robert Snyder, Jo Ann Carroll, Beverly Antesburger, President, John McKeon, Luis Nunez, Timothy Wherry, Connie Porta, Cheryl Tomasetti, Patricia Stevens, Standing: David Goss, Larry Adams and Alan Temofonte, the students and the school are of primary concern.

The red badge reads monitor and denotes responsibility and leadership. The Junior and Senior monitors are: First Row—L. Minori, C. Hoffman, K. Hatch, J. Taylor, A. Pierannunzio, M. A. Hughes, D. Heverly, C. Williams, S. Stevens, M. Denny. Second Row— R. Kristofco, C. DelGrosso, B. Antesberger, D. Yonkosky, J. A. Jones, R. Ruston, C. Tomesetti, P. Kenny, M. Peters. Third Row—C. Fiore, K. Robison, B. Naperkoski, J. Gallagher, J. A. Carroll, C. Porta, M. J. Byrne, P. Stevens, J. Dougherty, C. Dumm. Fourth Row—C. Lumadue, J. Naperkowski, T. Sigrist, T. Marr, F. Thalhauser, D. Manocchio, R. Krastik, D. Ergler. Fifth Row—J. McKeon, L. Savino, G. Caldwell, R. Snyder, R. Angello, D. Miller, D. Mock. Sixth Row—L. Nunez, W. Rowen, D. DiLucchio, C. Moyer, D. Langguth, E. Benton, and J. Pielmeier.

A Challenge, A Trust

An enthralled Christina Williams gets Denny Schultz's version of how to wreck a Corvair.

Still in the clouds, Mr. Lambour receives students acclaim for his Purple and Gold Day outfit.



A second later and we might have known, "Was Larry Savino just checking his coat or was he becoming Patty Kenny's Sir Galahad?"

Leadership Is Service

"And now a word from our sponsor," says Mike McGough as Denny Heavey reads over the commercial.

Responsibility comes early to those who prove themselves worthy of the trust. At the Sixth Avenue Building. Bottom Row—D. Yorgy, M. McGough, M. Maniglia, R. Williams, V. Milliron, M. B. Rudolph, L. "Good Grief!–Is it real?" ask these befuddled future scientists.

Honor Rewards Merits

To outstanding members of the GUILFOYLE GAZETTE and ACCOLADE staffs, hard work is rewarded with membership in the Quill and Scroll Society. Paula Seymore, Treas.; Donna Yonkosky, Vice Pres.; Chris Williams, Sec.; David Goss, Pres.; Dorothy Anthony, Representative; and Moderator, Sister M.Gregory.

Listen my children and you will hear a speech club's version of a bang-up year. Moderator Sr. Ann Therese RSM, Left to Right—Elizabeth Krasowski, Rita Schreiner, James Dumm, Rita Kristofco, Mary Denny, and John Pielmeier.

Obviously Vice Pres. Stephen Nedimeyer has received a little coaching for this presentation to his fellow officers, Treas. Kathleen Eckley, Pres. Michael Hughes, Sec. Mary Abrashoff. Guilty Moderator Sr. Frances Mary, RSM.

A Time To Speak

Accolade Archway To Our

Teamwork characterized the determined ACCOLADE staff as it struggled to meet deadlines. To give the '66 edition a personality which mirrored the atmosphere

Under the able direction of Mary Denny, Donna Yonkosky, Pam Boslet, Denny Haberstroh, Rita Schreiner, Charles Becker, Paula Seymour, Alan Temofonte, and Mary have endeavored to present the real story behind the Underclassmen and Administration.

Whether our teams have won or lost, the Accolade Sports section Linda Minori, Joel Rossbach, Maureen Isenberg, Susan Schuh, John McKeon, and Bob Snyder have been there to capture the action.

Memories

of both school and class, long hours were spent planning and unifying theme, lay-outs, pictures and copy.

Co-Editors Luis Nunez and Daniel DiLucchio, flanking Business Manager Lawrence Savino, began the 1965 school session determined to present an Accolade surpassing all its predecessors in excellence.

With "Go!" as their theme, the Activities Staff: Tim Conrad, Katie Dumm, Robert Dodson, Christina Williams, section editor, Patty Kenny, and John Pielmeier produced a kaleidoscope of life at Bishop Guilfoyle. Missing, Donna Yonkosky.

To the Seniors section fell the task of recording the accomplishment of a class. Marie Elaine Grassi, Dennis Schultz, Editor James Reilly, Helena Wilczenski, Richard Angello, and Mary Comitz consider the hours working on layouts, time well spent.

"Now group," says Business Editor Larry Savino, "all you have to do is conduct a patron campaign, a subscription drive, and a distribution system." Even for an efficient business staff, that was quite an order.

The GUILFOYLE GAZETTE keeps the student body well aware of past events and future activities through the school. An interested and informed staff seeks accuracy and variety in planning its publication. For each issue there is copy, proofreading, layout, and printing to cause anxious moments, yet to editors, reporters, and typists, production of a good news sheet is its own reward.

No conversation can draw Helena Wilczenski from her latest copy of the GUILFOYLE GAZETTE.

mon in foreign cultures. Far from the discipline of classroom, student and moderator share the fun of discovery. Interest and purpose make learning a challenge to be accepted, and lay our world before us through the medium of communication.

Sister Thomas More, moderator of the French Club, goes to gay Paree by stove; and unless she gets a bigger range, it looks as if Treas. J. A. Jones; Vice Pres. A. Temofonte; Sec. C. Dumm; Pres. J. Pielmeier will be left behind.

The officers of Der Deutsch Verein, Vice Pres. R. Snyder; Pres. T. Marr; Treas. K. Speilvogle; Sec. P. Stevens; and Representative, D. Miller, line up for Mr. Myers' quick review of the Club's Constitution. Mike Schaefer gladly offers any Assistance he can.

This is German love poetry, Mr. Myers?!

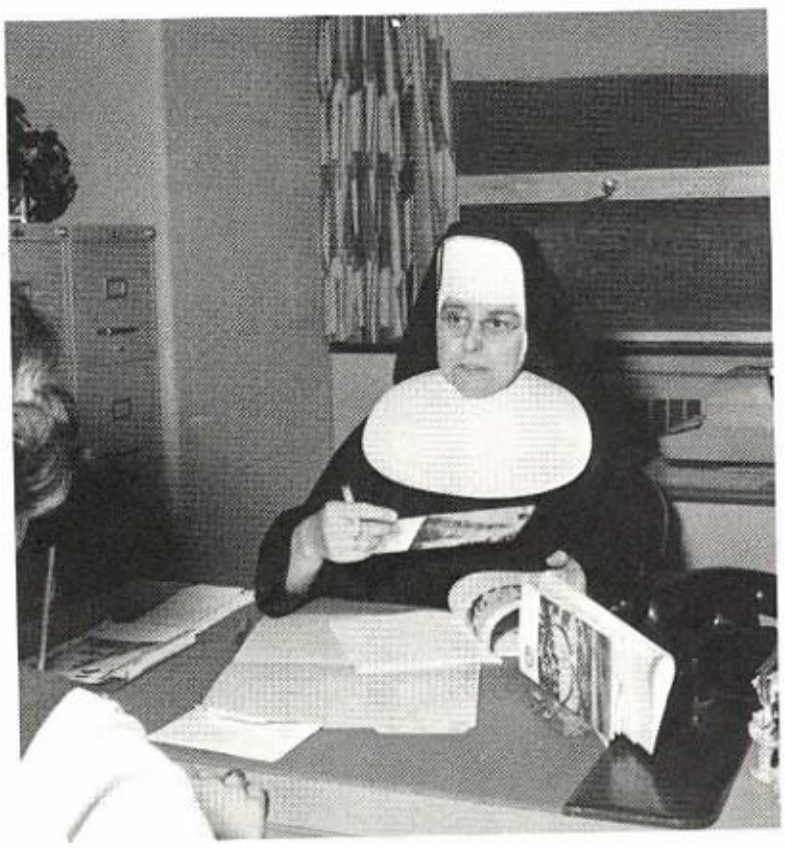
According to Pres. Tom Marr and the wall map, it's a theoretical impossibility to get lost in the Roman Forum; but Sister Marie Aubert and the Junior Classical League officers, Treas. S. Smith; Vice Pres. D. Mannochio; Representative, M. A. Hughes and Sec. C. Dumm, know better.

The topic for discussion in the personal interview—the future.

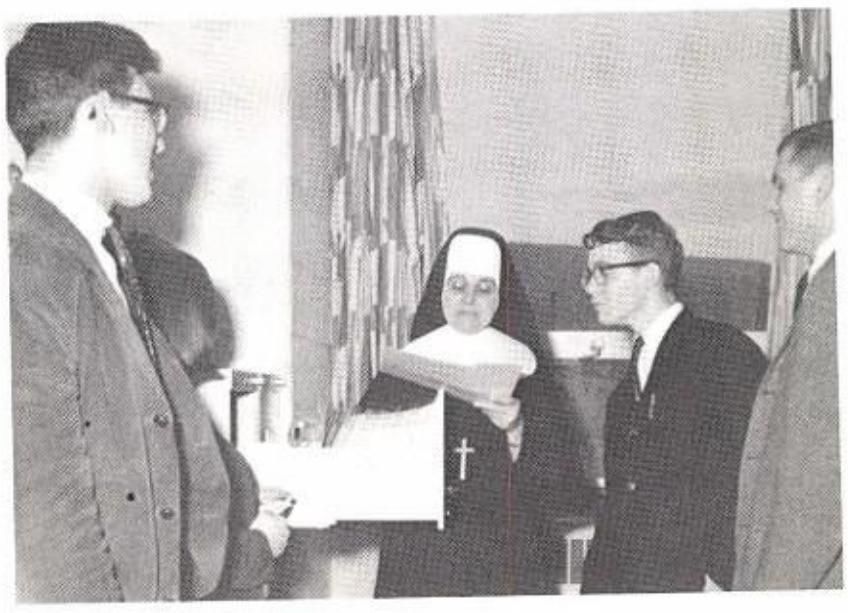
Without doubt the Guidance Office is a hub of school activity. In addition to attendance counts and record tabulation, Sister Camilla serves as sacristan.

Her office, a second home for seniors is a haven where Sister conducts personal interviews, evaluates scores, and advises students on the making of many crucial decisions. Sister works patiently and cheerfully in the best interests of her undergraduate clientele.

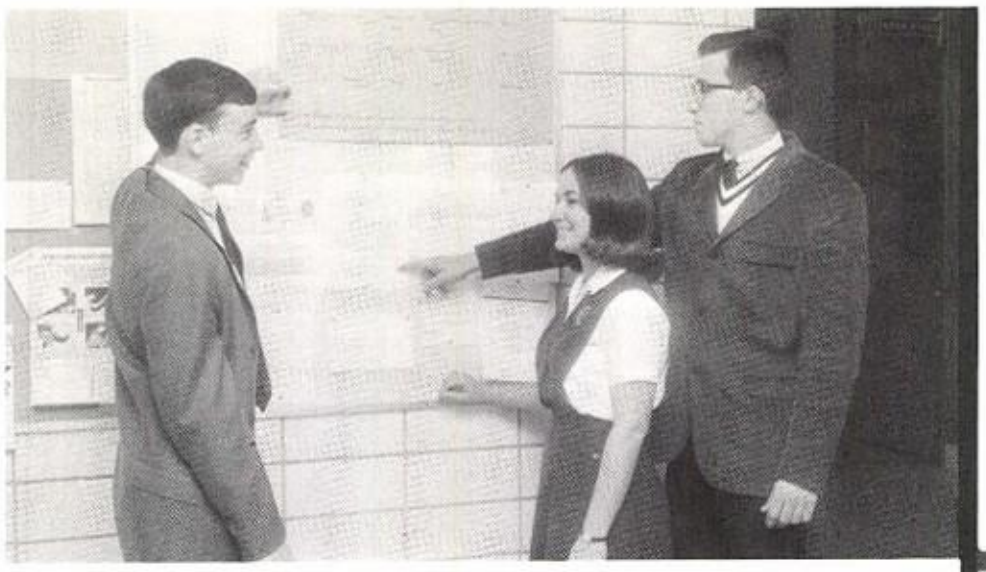
The daily attendance record occupies Sister Camilla and our new teacher-aid, Mrs. Stere.



For class schedules Sister refers to a college manual.



Test results are of paramount importance to many who knock on the Guidance door.



With the student body the Mission Club officers, Bob Ritchey, Cheryl Tomasetti and Joe Saclaro share a moment of pride as they note the commendation of their Thanksgiving campaign.

Sixth Avenue Mission Club officers Daniel Walter, Linda Raneri, Paul Lilly, and John Hischar take an account of the success of their magazine and stamp drives.

A world of tremendous power and minute detail waits for all who dare to grasp for knowledge. To seek out nature's mysteries we delve into the realms of the abstract and the material. Many will see success in the harnessing of power and energy, but all will find in an understanding of earth's secrets a place in their own technological society.

With the class' approval Patty West has proved 1 paralleled to m, but Christina Cunningham wants to prove it her way. Standing—Patty West, Anton Mershiltz, Christine Cunningham, Dave Letscher, Ginny Milliron, Jim Schmidhammer, Sister Adrienne Marie, and Barbara Smith. Seated—Jannine Billotte, Debby Seymore, Debby Larrimore, Nancy Vetakis and Alfredo Bustaque.

"Watch your shading," counsels Sister Francis Jean as Sixth Avenue Art Lab students, Vivian Vaughn, Anthony Hallinan, and Tim Cassidy, labor over their first project.

It's not unusual to find the Pleasant Valley Art Lab full of busy people. Here Jo Anne Jones and Joel Rossbach confer with Sister about pens and brushes and stroke technique.

When dinner involves maximum effort, these homemaking seniors, Ginny Grimme, Mary Comitz, Susie Blair and Kathy McGough know that the table must be a work of art.

Something new has been added to the Homemaking Department, a course in Christian Family Living. Here Sister Roseann helps Margie Kunstbeck, Sandy Sisto, Judy Noel, Judy Bernhart, Jo Palma, Margie Bettwy and Helen Casciotti plan a weekly menu for a family of four.

It's Linda's sincere wish that Cyril learn that third act. A girl could get a permanent kink in her neck this way.

Love Is Eternal

The script calls for a laugh and Dave Goss and Jim Cawley really give their all while Jackie Drass doubts their sanity.

Sister Thomas More and student directress Katie Dumm, seem a bit skeptical about that last act.

Linda Minori, Danny DiLucchio and Joanne Carroll learn that long hours precede great triumphs.

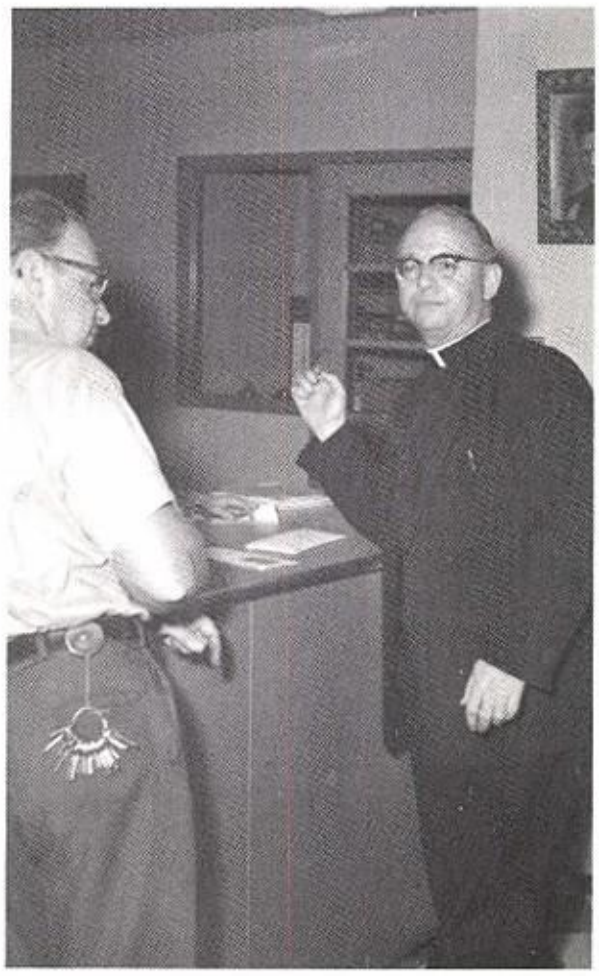
"And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all things to Myself." At the very core of reality, deep within the wellspring of existence which is His Mystical Body, we unite each week with Christ through His priest to renew again our offering of ourselves to God. No mere rhetoric this. Only the awareness of God's unending love for us, and our gratitude to Him.

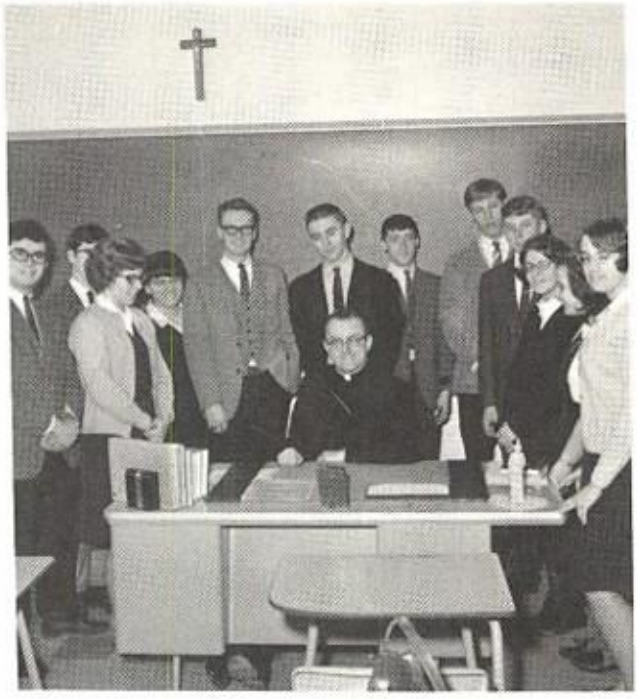
A Time

Four volunteers, Greg Nale, Jim Dumm, Jane Gallagher and Mary Lou Himes transform our gymnasium into a chapel for the weekly Mass.

Monsignor Kline stops at Pleasant Valley to check final details for the Sixth Avenue retreat.

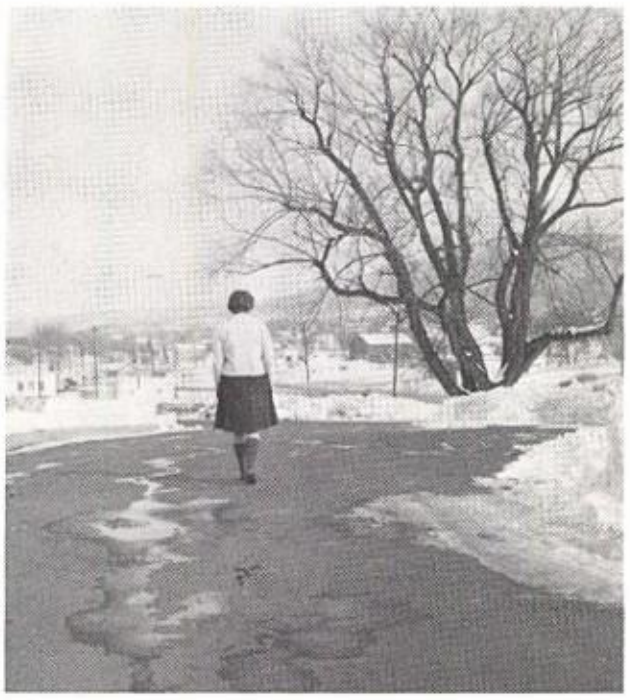


Our annual retreat, coming as it does at semester break, is a good opportunity for students to survey the past semester and lay plans for the future. Between conferences Steve Yorgy, Bob Ruggery, Ray Creamer, Patty Kenny and Beth Frazzini stop for a brief chat with the retreat master, Father Paul Hatch, T.O.R.



Father Saylor answers a barrage of questions after his discussion on "The Church in the Modern World".

New ideas implemented in our retreat schedule included provision for solitary walks for thinking in the cold, clear out-of-doors.



Conferences emphasized self-anaylsis as a dominant factor in true Christian renewal, and many sought to know themselves better while kneeling before the chapel altar.

For Renewal

A spirit of discovery pervaded the atmosphere as students attended a Byzantine rite Mass and received Communion under both Species.

Flattery will get you nowhere Sister, this Christman Babe just wants to go home.

A life, a world, personal, friendly, ours through four years, is soon to become a memory. Fond remembrance mingles with dreams of new horizons. Yesterday, today, realities; tomorrow—a beginning, a hope, and a prayer. Eager for challenge we seek to live—to know sorrow and joy, to love and be loved, and to give each moment meaning. Beyond is the future, our future, our world.

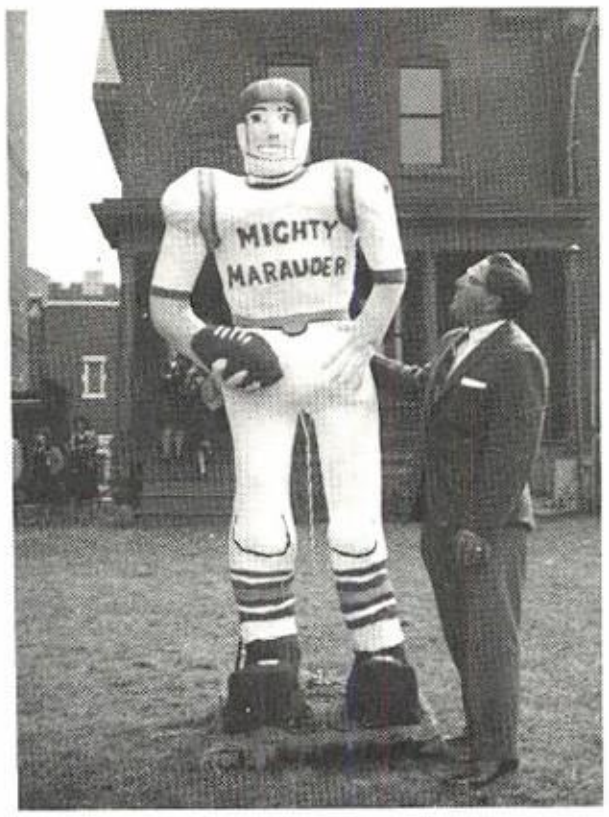
Alphonse Pacifico
Head Coach

The fighting Marauders of Bishop Guilfoyle faced one of the toughest schedules in the history and came out with the purple and gold flying high and mighty. Although set back four times during the season, the stalwart "11" always placed first in drive and desire.

Coach Al Pacifico's second year at B.G. sparked a rebirth in both the style and caliber of football played by our school. Count this season as a foundation for better years to come.



Can't you just see the wheels turning as Coach Pacifico speculates, "Just the blocker we need for an end sweep."

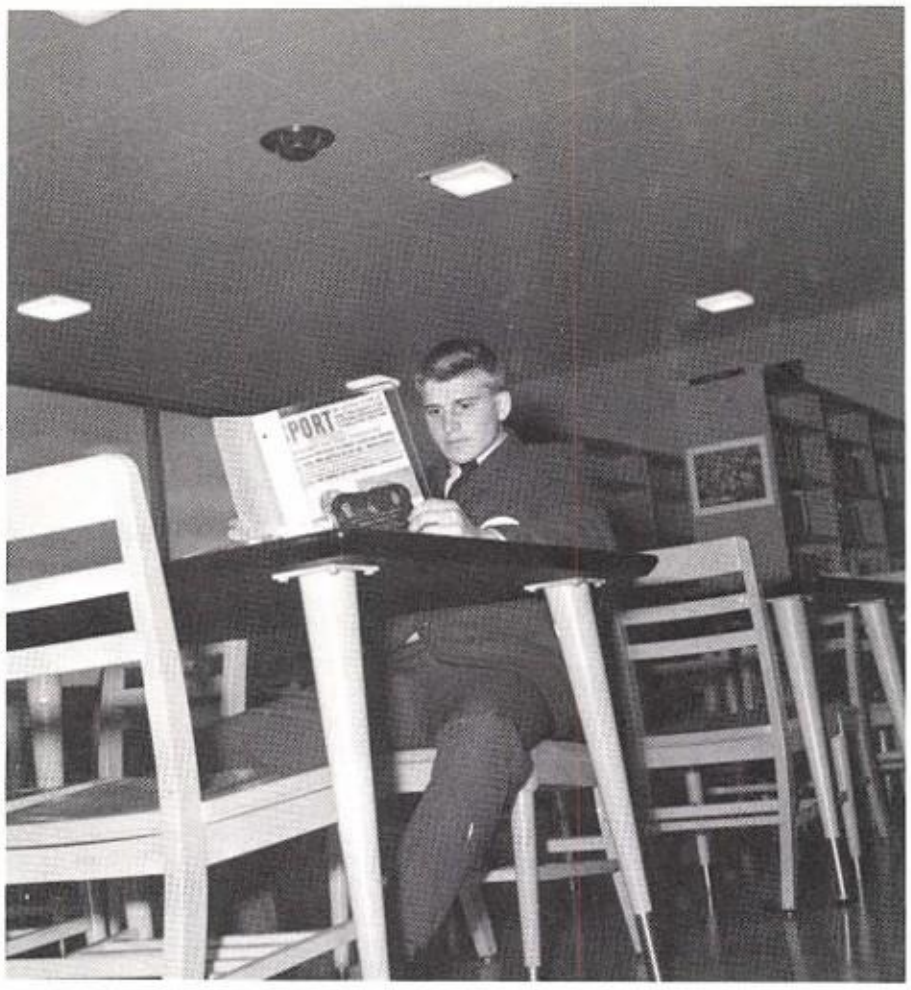
This year B.G.H.S. sent straight to Germany for its star place-kicker. Besides adding the extra point to many of the Marauders' touchdowns, he instilled a spirit of pep and vigor into all those who came in contact with him—Mike Schaefer.



Ray Hipp, the bulwark of the 1965 Fighting Marauders, is as much a team man as anyone who ever donned a B.G. helmet, but his aggressive offensive and defensive attacks led him to much personal glory also. The 5'9", 170 lbs. halfback chalked up 78 pts. with 1,078 yards gained in 195 tries for a sharp 5.5 yard average a carry. His playing ability did not escape recognition on a state-wide scale. Ray was cited Honorable Mention on both the All-State Team and Big 33. On the local scene, Ray was tied for third in Blair County scoring race and made first team All-Diocese. Congratulations, Ray, on a fine year.

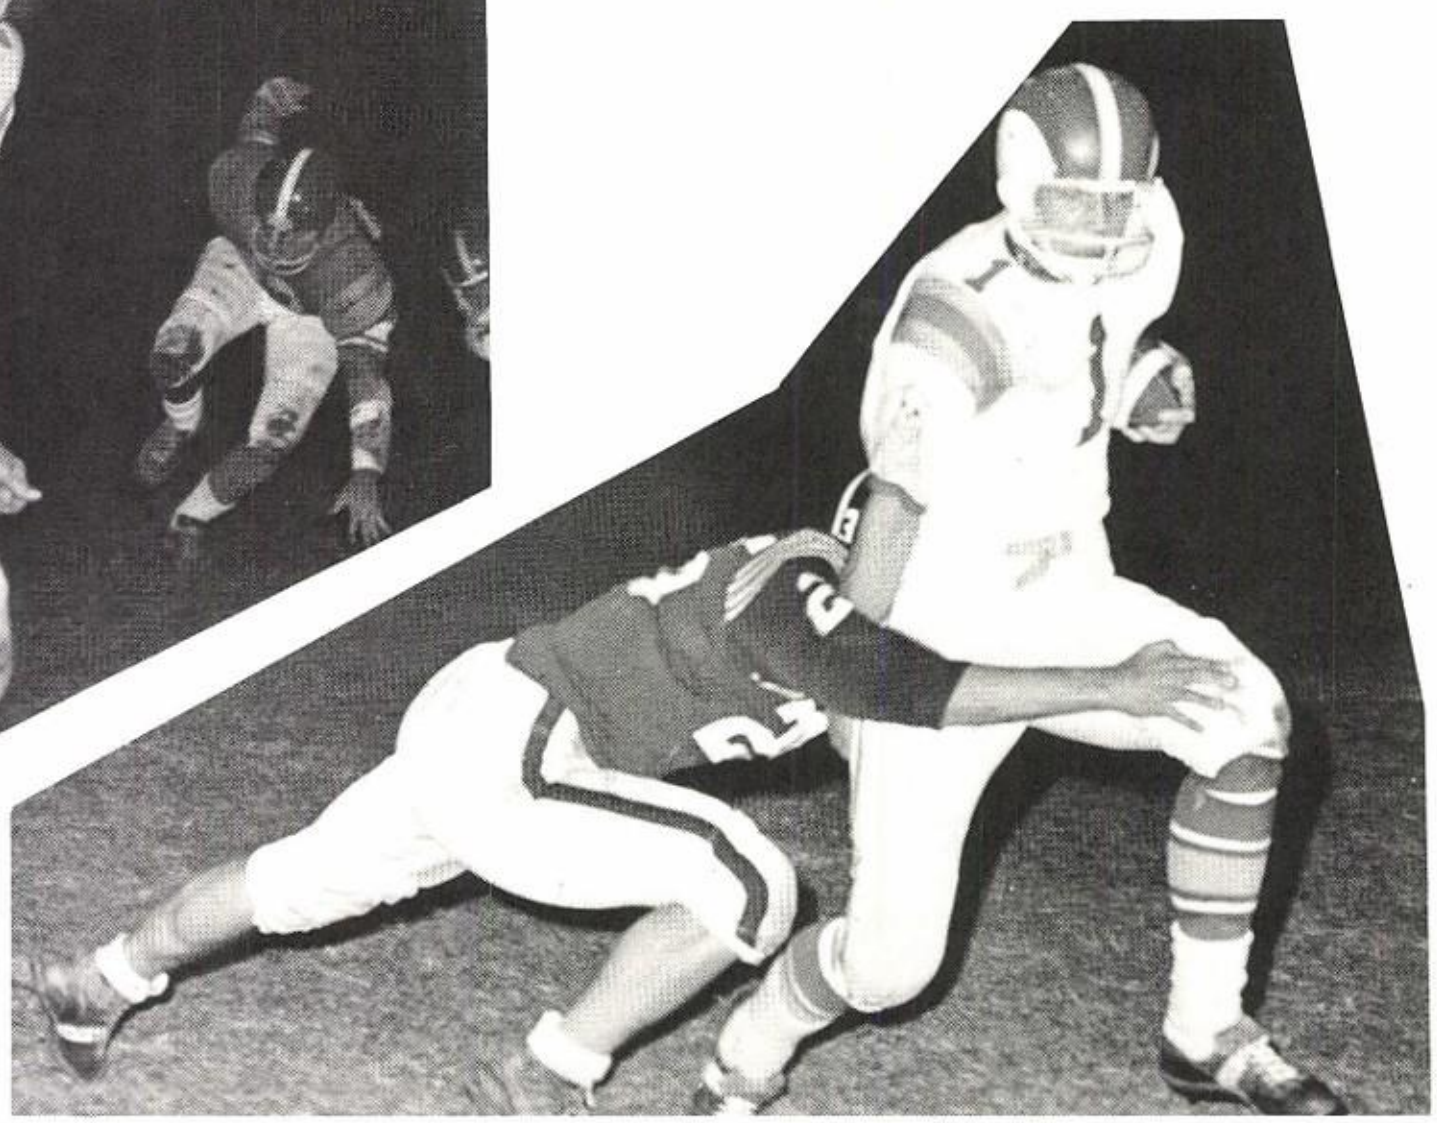
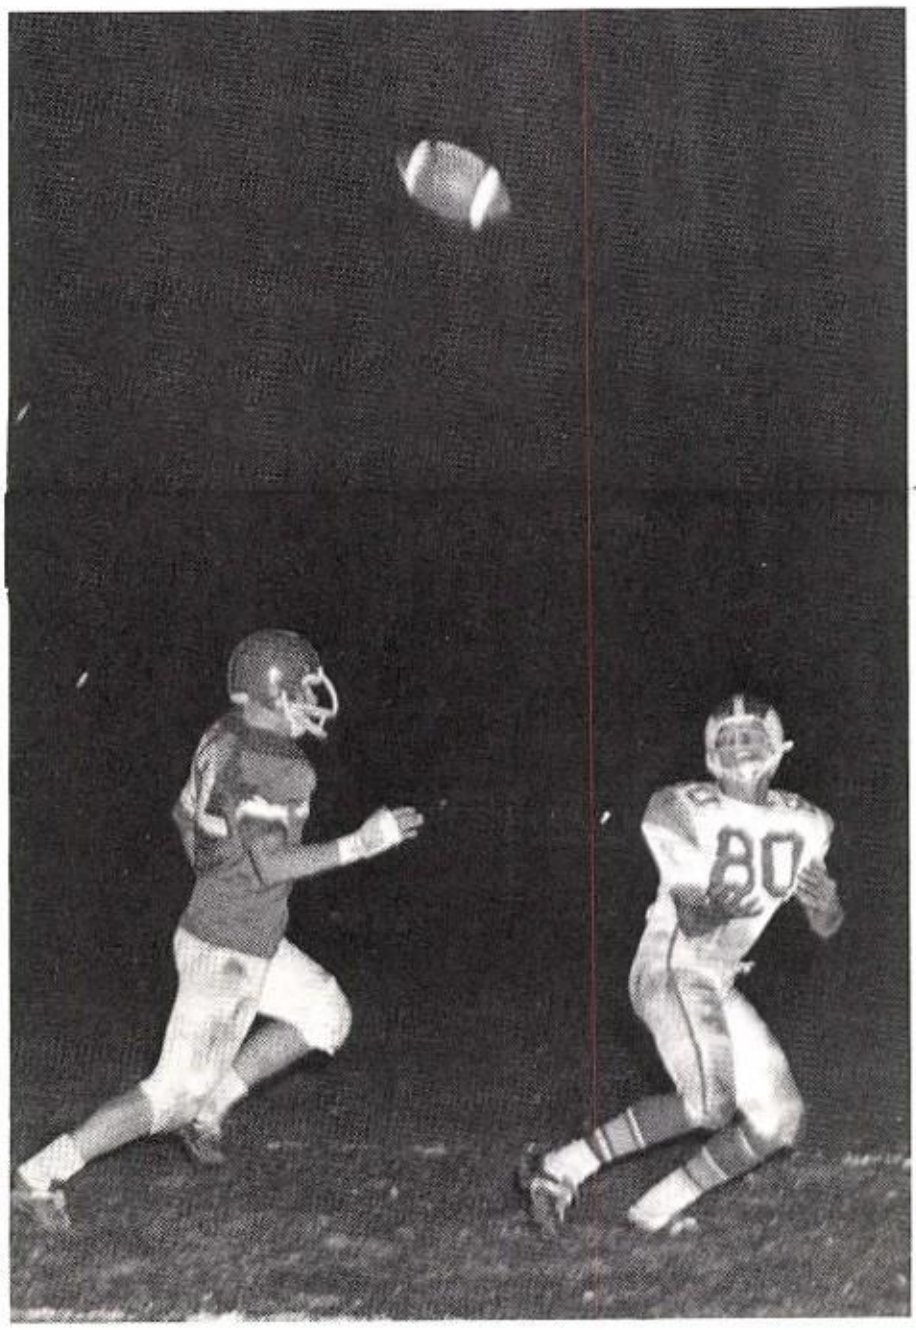
Where The Action Is

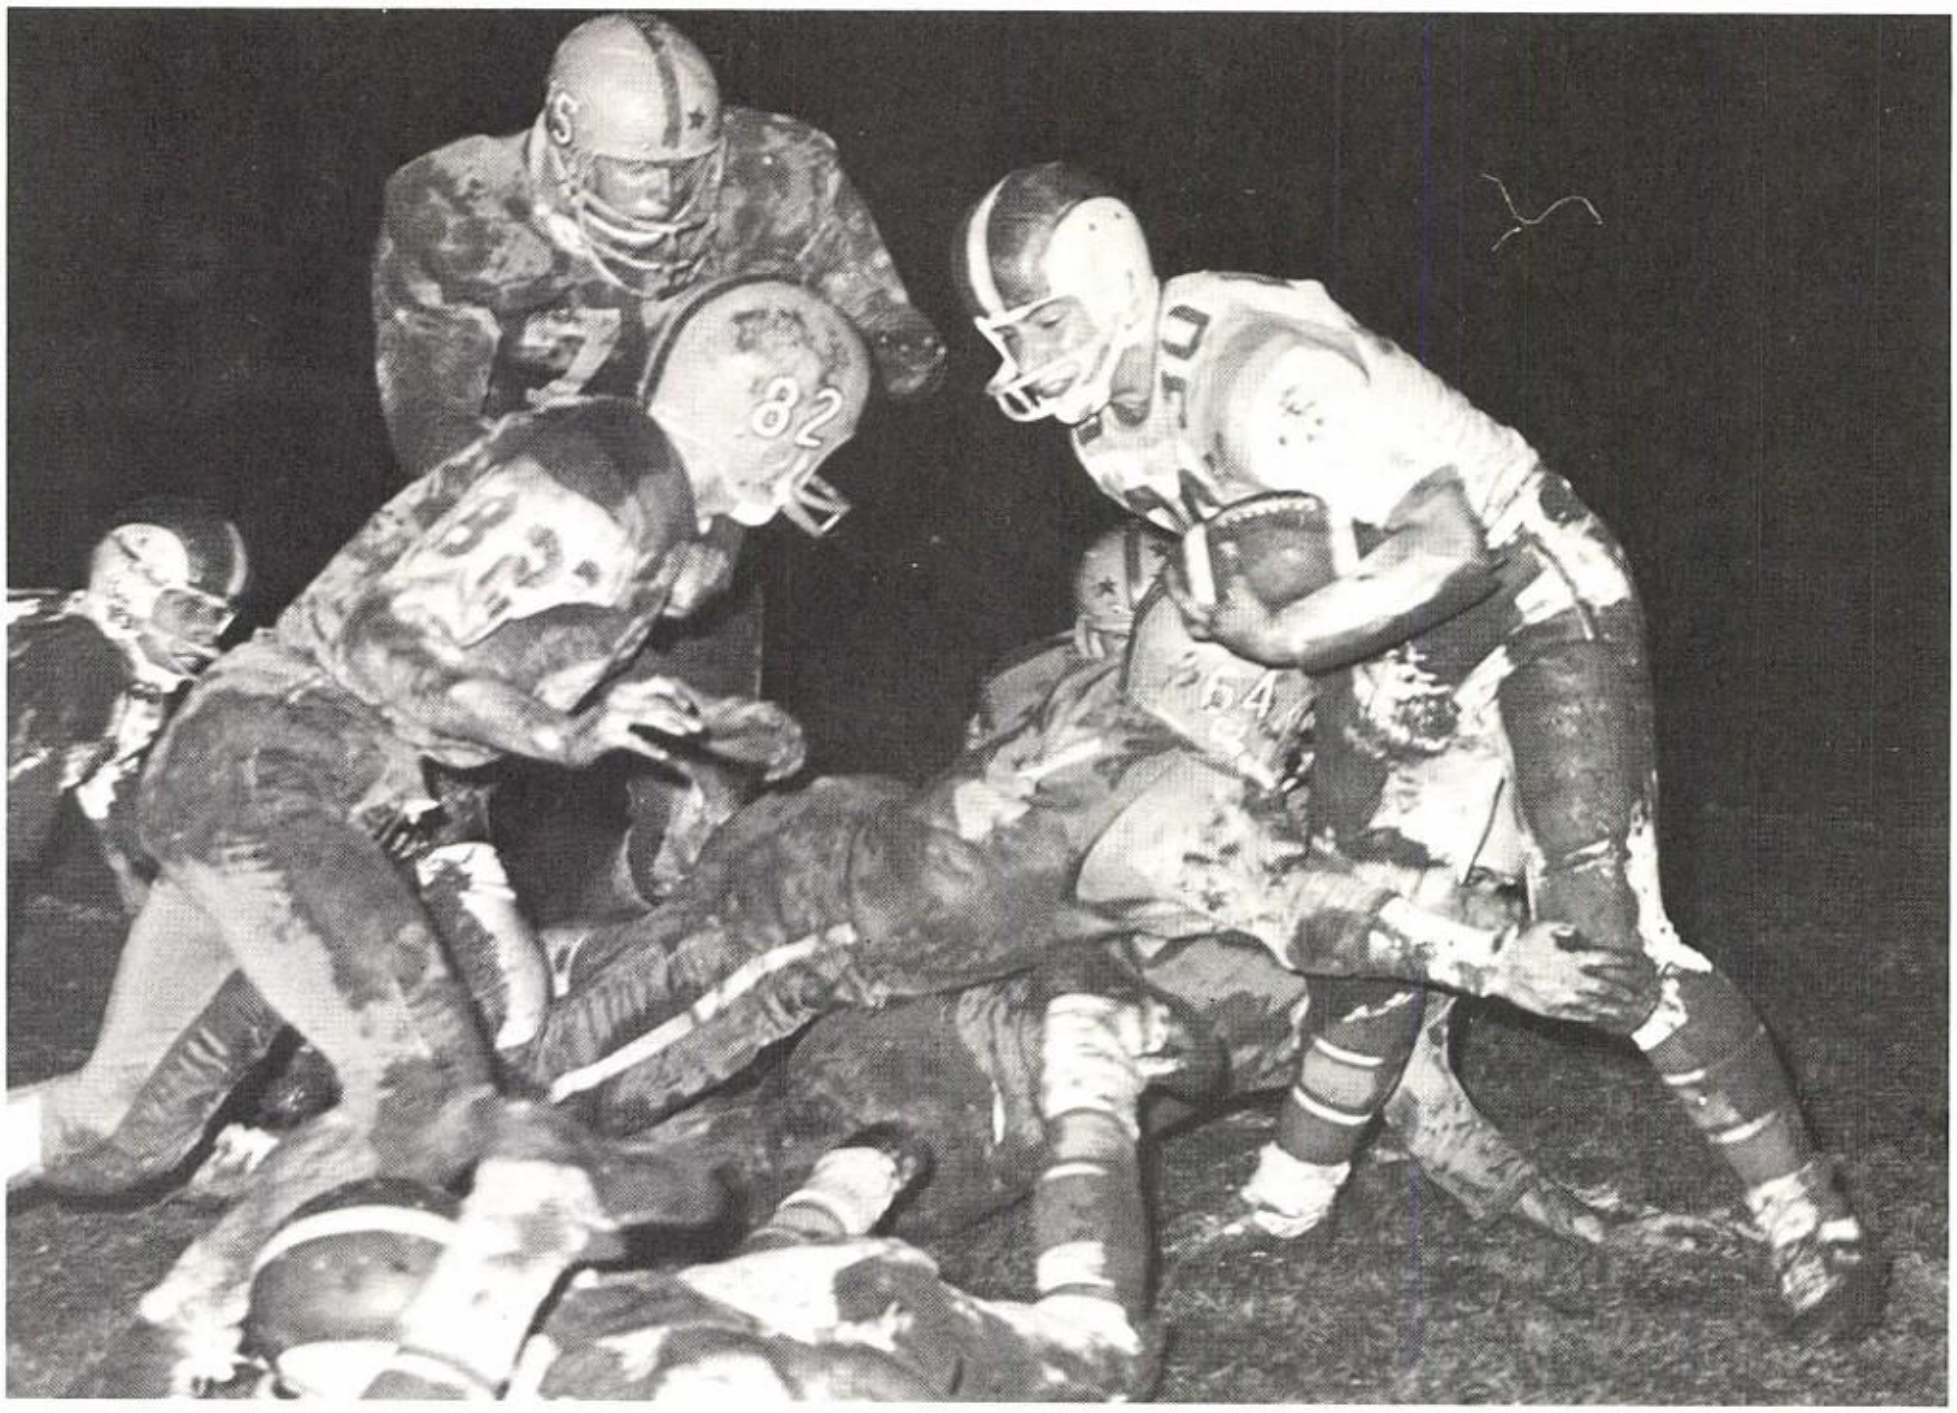


Pete Roscia gets a free seat on the 50 yd. line as he and the rest of the B.G. linemen watch Junior fullback Steve Yorgy battle an Allegany tackler.

Ray Hipp, B.G.'s backfield ace, turns the corner on the first leg of an amazing 60 yd. run against Triangle-Area.



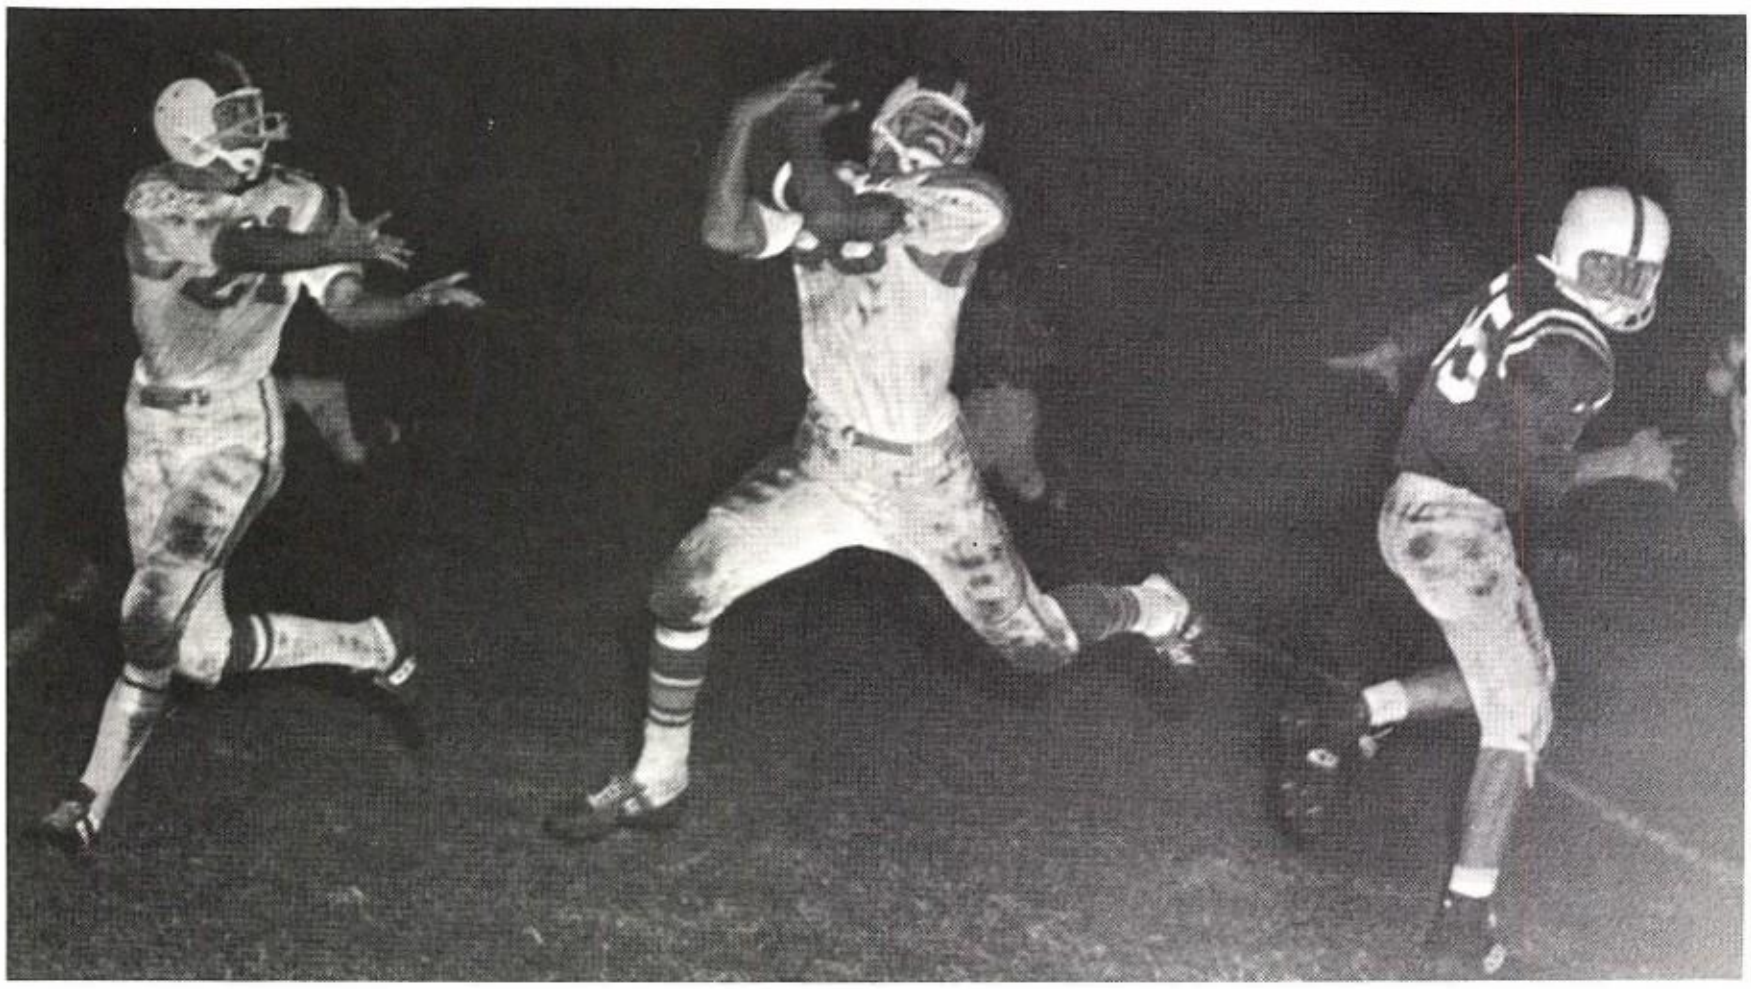
Tim Sigrist connects with Pete Roscia for a six-point pass play against Triangle-Area.



Steve Yorgy plows into an onslaught of dirty players from you-know-where! McCort won in last seven seconds.

Mike Schaefer tries for an extra point against the Rockets. Tim Sigrist sets it up.

Joe Neugebauer and Pete Roscia arrive at the scene a moment too late to help Senior Halfback Paul DiNicola escape the clutches of three Donora rushers.



Tom Russo has six points written all over his face, but Pete Roscia rushes in where angels fear to tread.

Jimmy Hollern (No. 60) gently genuflects on the neck of a teammate as Ray Hipp struggles for that extra yard.

Steve Yorgy charges the line of scrimmage for short yardage against B.G.'s arch-rival—McCort.

An excited crowd stands to cheer on old B.G. as the Purple and Gold ties McCort late in the fourth quarter.

A crowd of eager B.G. fans keep Mr. Hughes and Mr. Croft on their toes at one of B.G.'s biggest games.

Mr. Bruno and Mr. Drenning sacrifice their time, work hard, and still enjoy themselves at our sporting events.

Due to the dedicated and untiring efforts of these men, the B.G. Athletic Program has been greatly expanded. Their unending sacrifices that our school may have a reputable sports program have made them an example of effective alumni.

That these efforts may not go unacknowledged, we the students of B.G. salute the Athletic Association and say heartily, "Thanks!" Truly your footsteps shall be the Golden Path for us future alumni.

A most familiar face around B.G. is that of Mr. John Reilly, our Athletic Director. Hard work is always the order of his day.

Dottie Anthony's curiosity costs her an even start against her teammates.

Maureen Isenberg and Dottie Anthony clown on submerged shoulders while Janet Walters referees.

Swimming Team Officers: Dorothy Anthony, President; Mary Ann Griffin, Secretary; Pam Hatch, Treasurer.

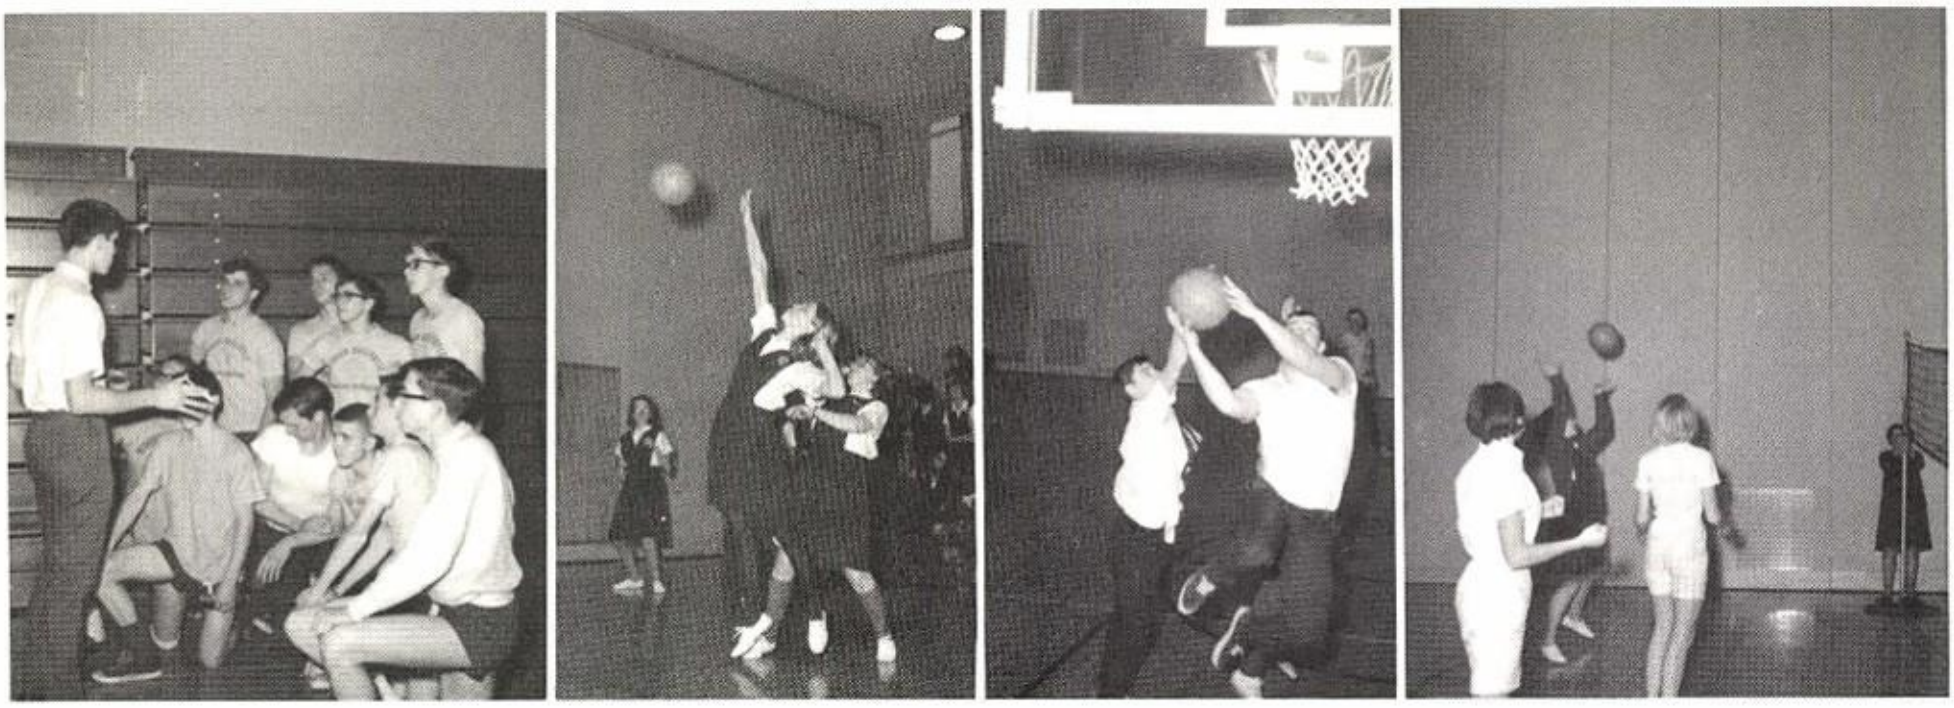
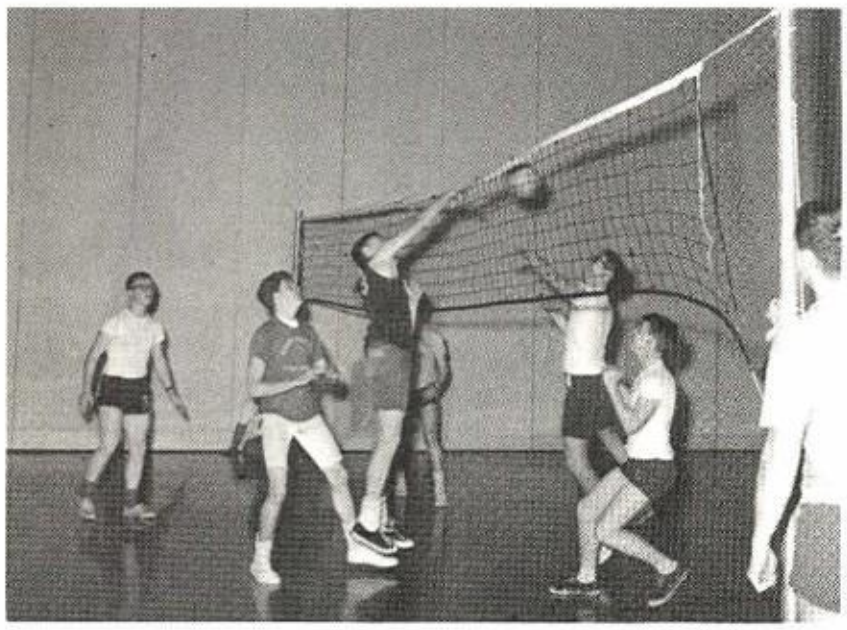
Moderator



In order to increase student participation in competitive sports, the Student Council sponsors intramural basketball and volleyball.

Gym Classes

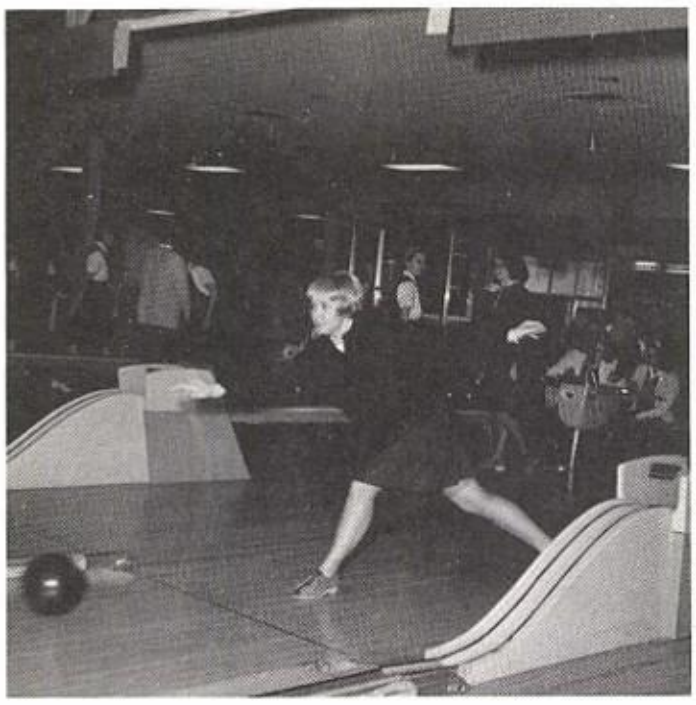


Greg Winkler is caught in the act as he tries to sneak in an illegal spike.

During an early gym class, Coach Pacifico wonders if surely someone can't hit the target.

Robin Hood's band would have been a lot merrier had it included these deadeyes.

Ron Ferrone and Dave Goss watch Denny Schultz and George Savine settle an argument. Denny seems to have the upper hand.



Mona Lee Evangelista's unique form draws the attention of the audience.

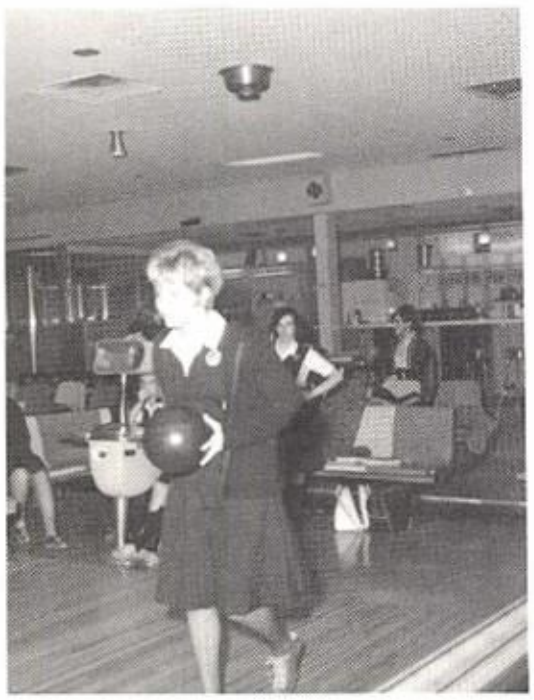
In the heat of competition, Denny Haberstroh rolls a potential strike.

Hustle and determination prevailed as the Continentals led the League. Front—P. Payne, D. Goss. Back—T. Roesch, J. Crawley.

The Bowling League

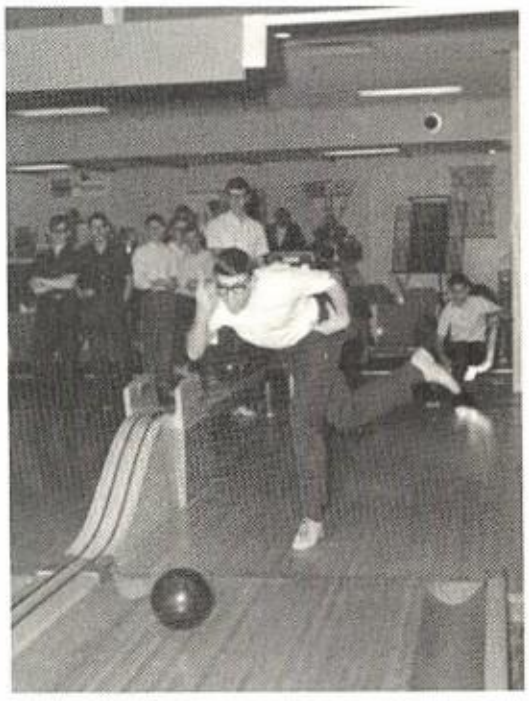
Some seventy Bishop Guilfoyle pin splitters can always be found racking 'em up at the Pleasant Valley Recreation Center each Monday after school. Competition runs heavy among the seventeen teams comprising the league. From late fall till early spring the weekly results of the League's activities are the talk of the school. Each series is down to earth, cut throat competition, and champions must truly prove themselves.

It is this constant attitude of competitive dedication that makes the Bishop Guilfoyle Bowling League one of the most celebrated extra-curricular activities.

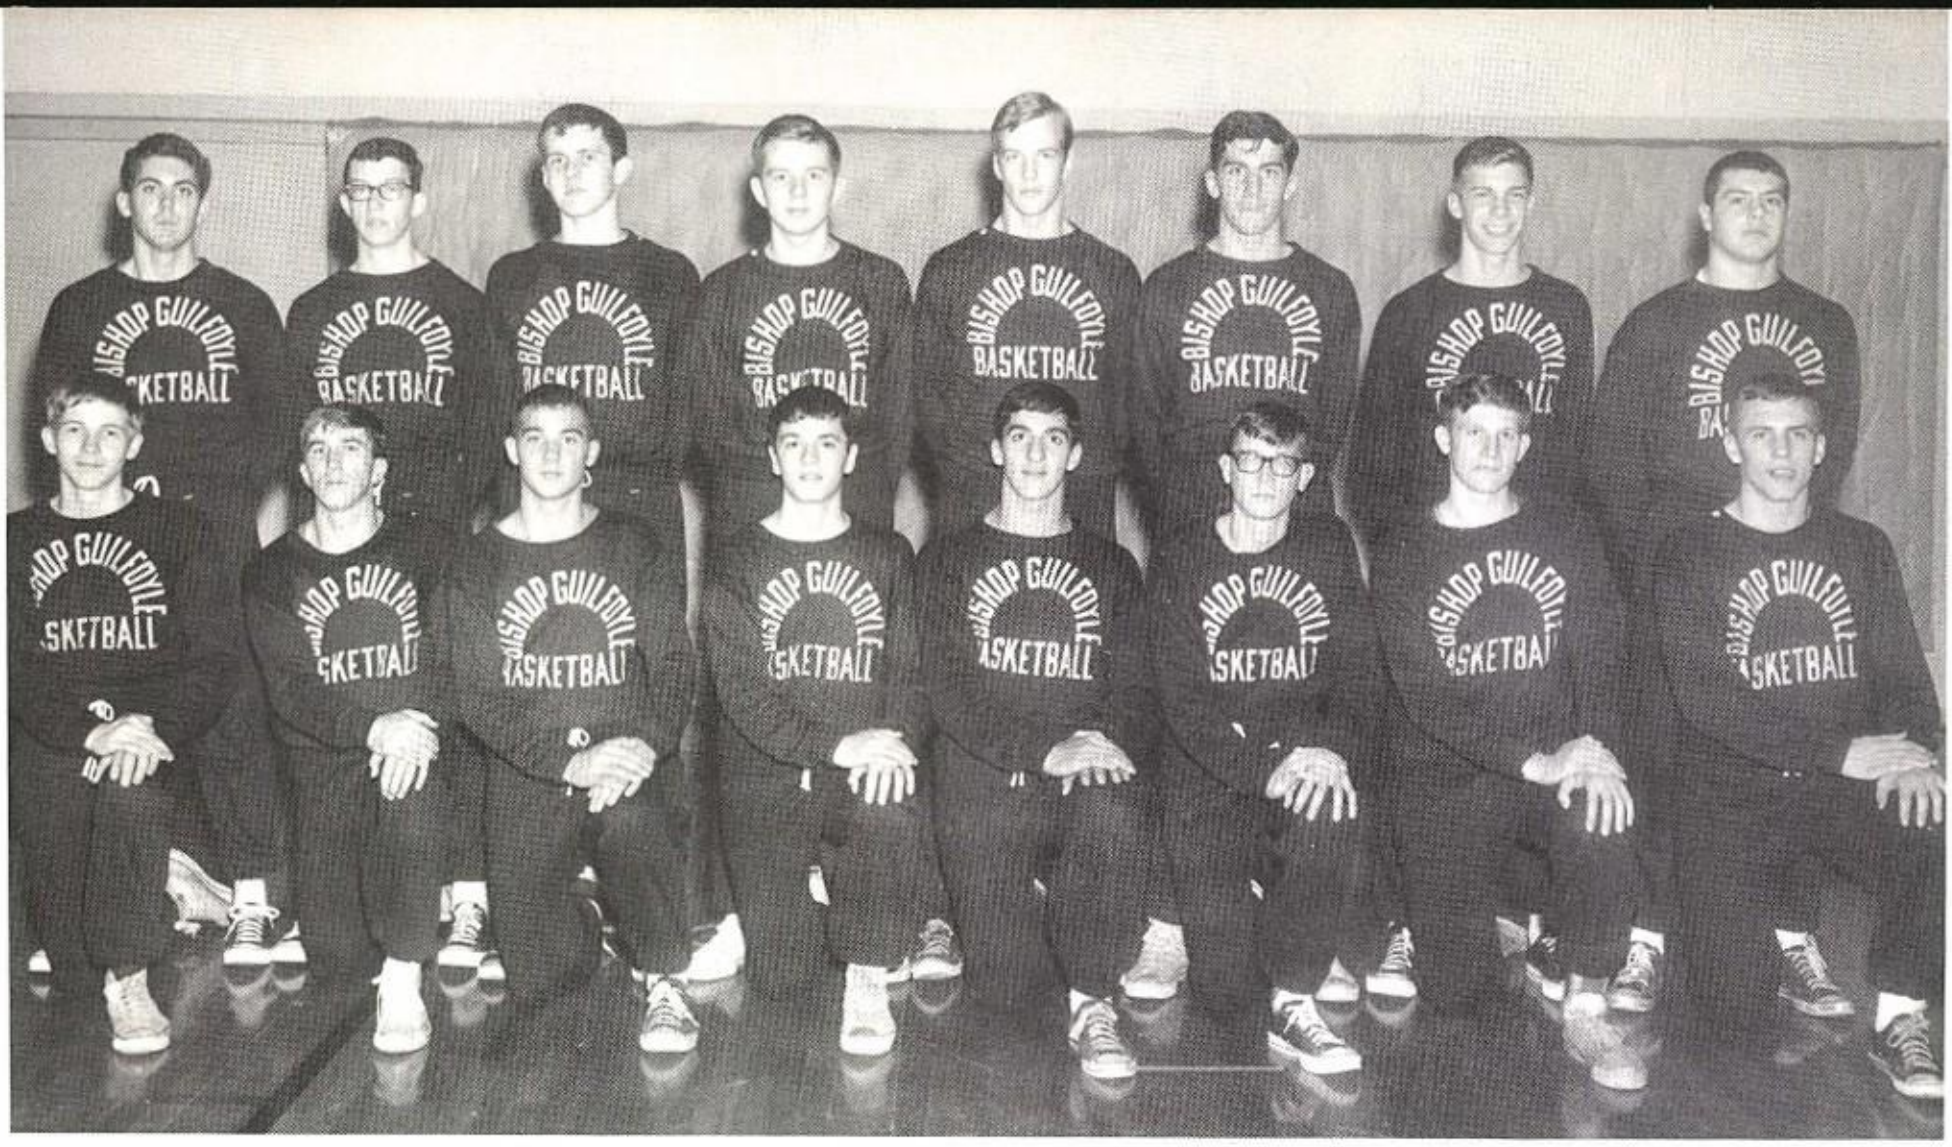


In the final frame of play, Bonnie Marlett plans her approach for delivery.

Enjoying a comfortable 76 pin lead, a few of the Continentals take a breather.



Frank Jarkiewicz delivery deals another damaging blow to the opposition.



First Row—D. Runk, W. Adams, P. Shute, W. Shover, P. Roscia, G. Winkler, J. Gerwert, T. Sigrist. Second Row—T. Conrad, J. Sonefelt, J. Reilly, D. Stehle, J. Bentley, J. Landolphi, R. Eger, T. Turchetta.

Basketball

Jim Gerwert finds a hole in the defense at practice.

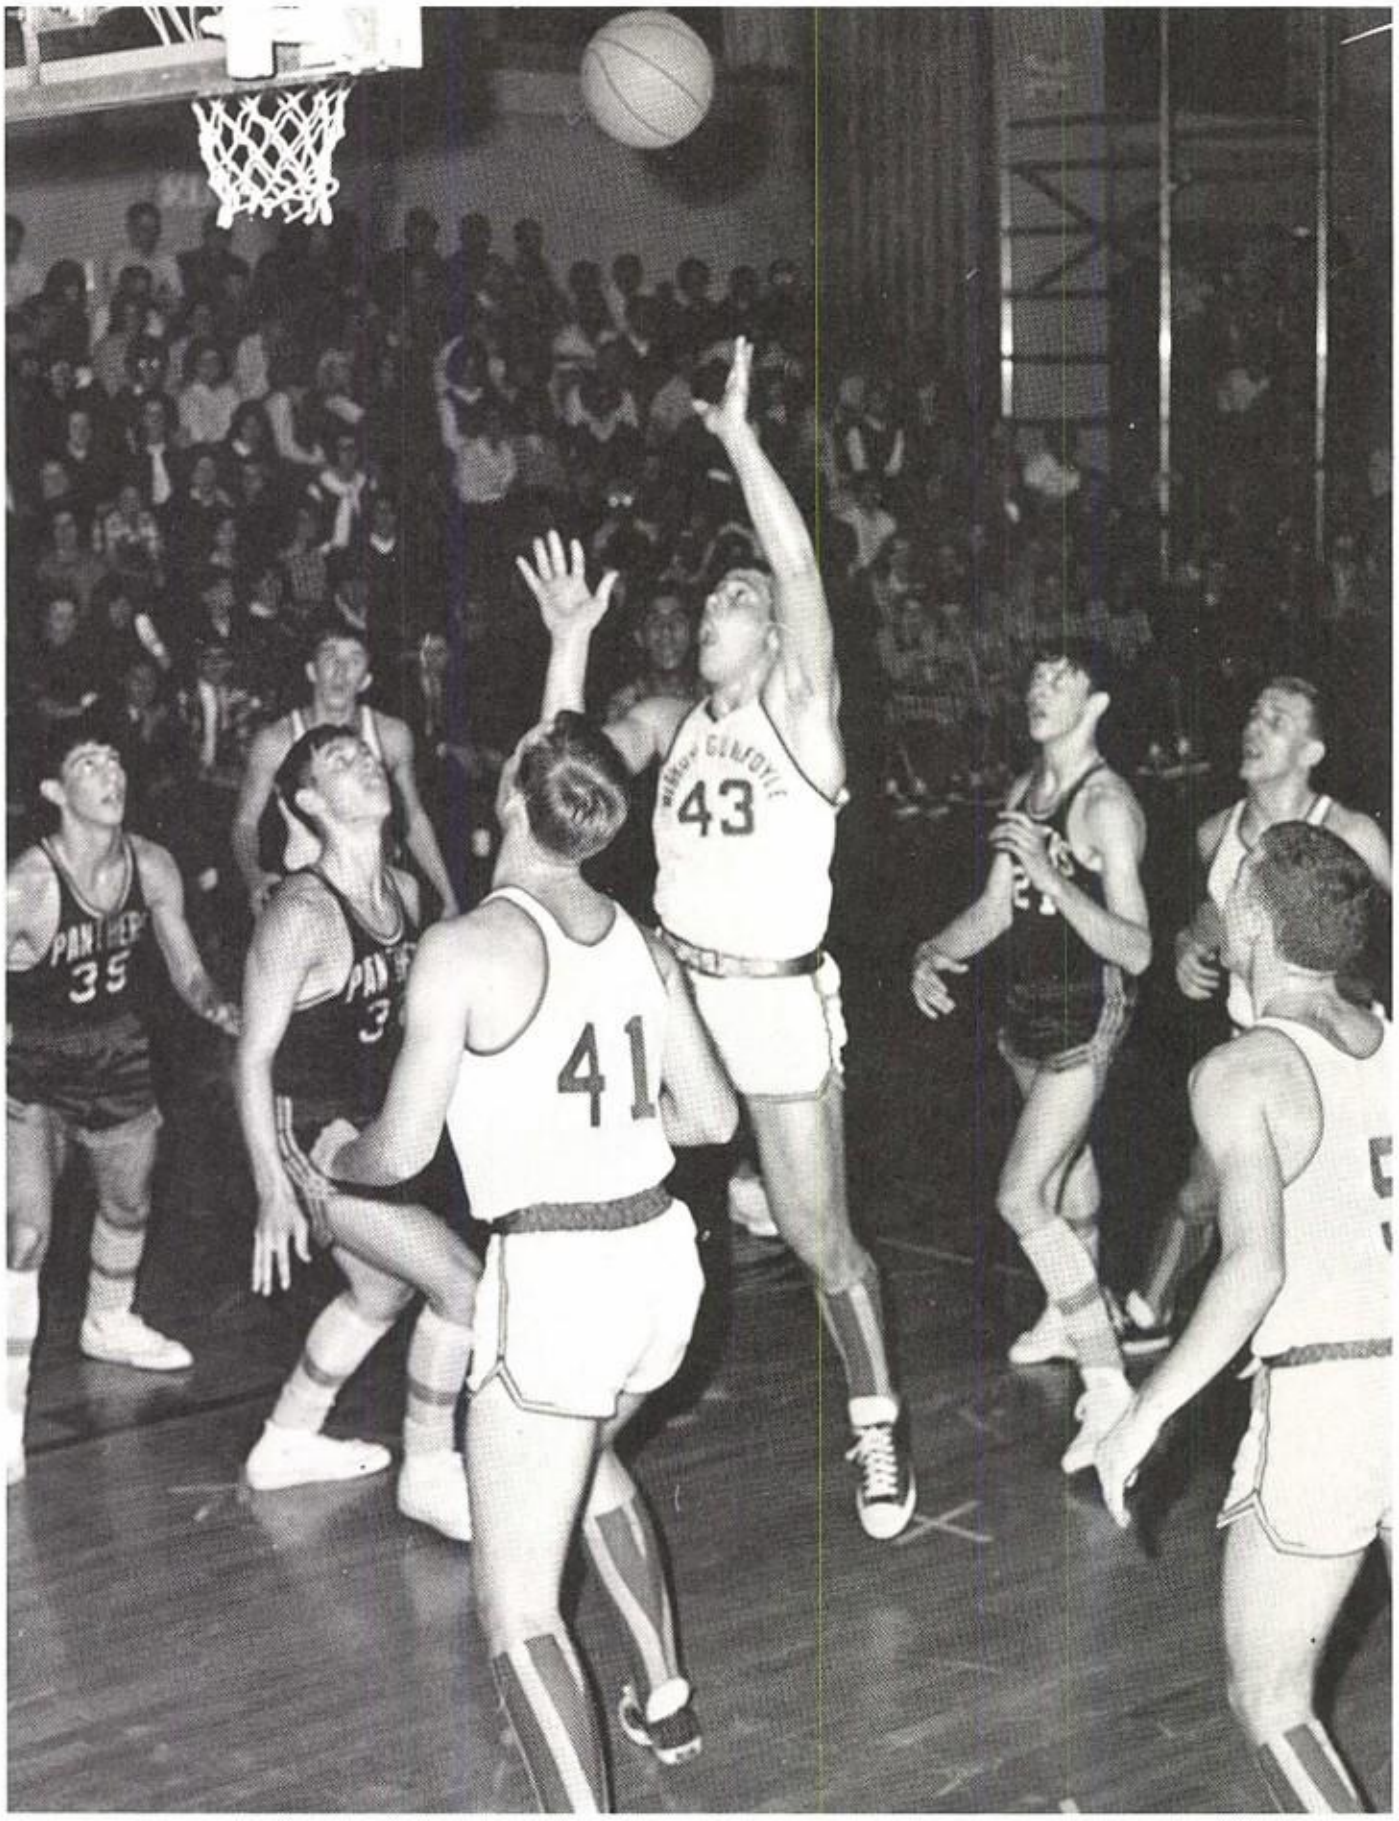
B.G.'s center, Jerry Bentley uses his height advantage to dump in another two-pointer.

B.G. all but won this opening tap against Bishop Carroll. The game proved to be no different.

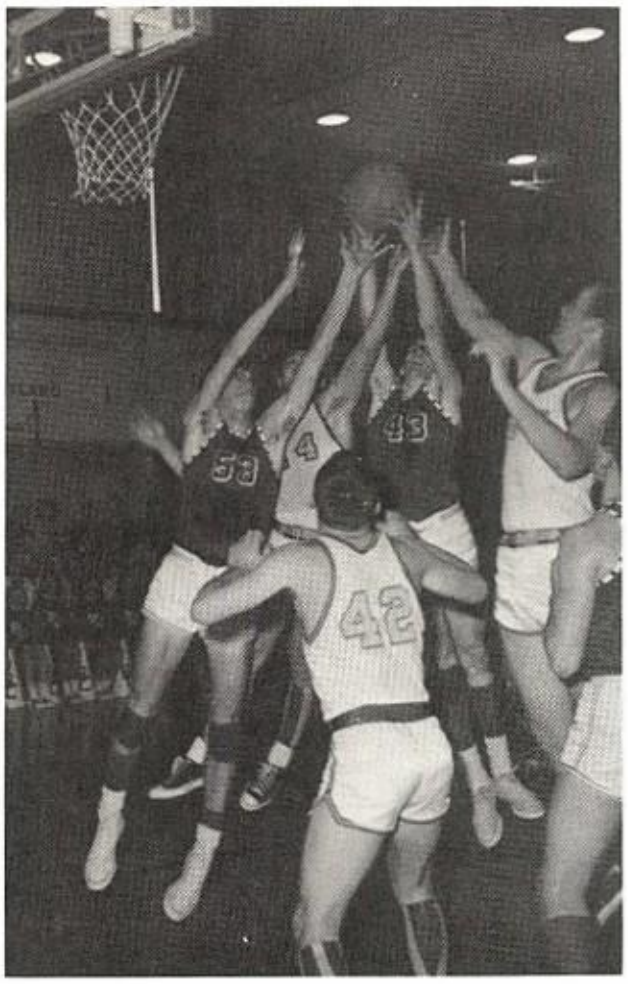
Pat Shute and Jerry Bentley found that double-teaming was the only way to stop Williamsburg's Bill Kagarise.



B.G.'s hatchet-man, Tom Turchetta, strikes again as teammates and opposition watch in awe.

B.G fans raise the rafters as they warn the opposition that B.G. doesn't take second place to anyone.

Pat Shute sneaks in a quick lay-up despite a late effort by Bishop Carroll's 43.



Bishop Carroll outjumps the B.G. boys to snag a key rebound under the offensive board.

As the last buzzer sounded the crowd let loose as our J.V.'s toppled Bishop McCort.

Billy Adams on a neat jumper deuces another.

" . . . C'mon Marauders, get in step!"

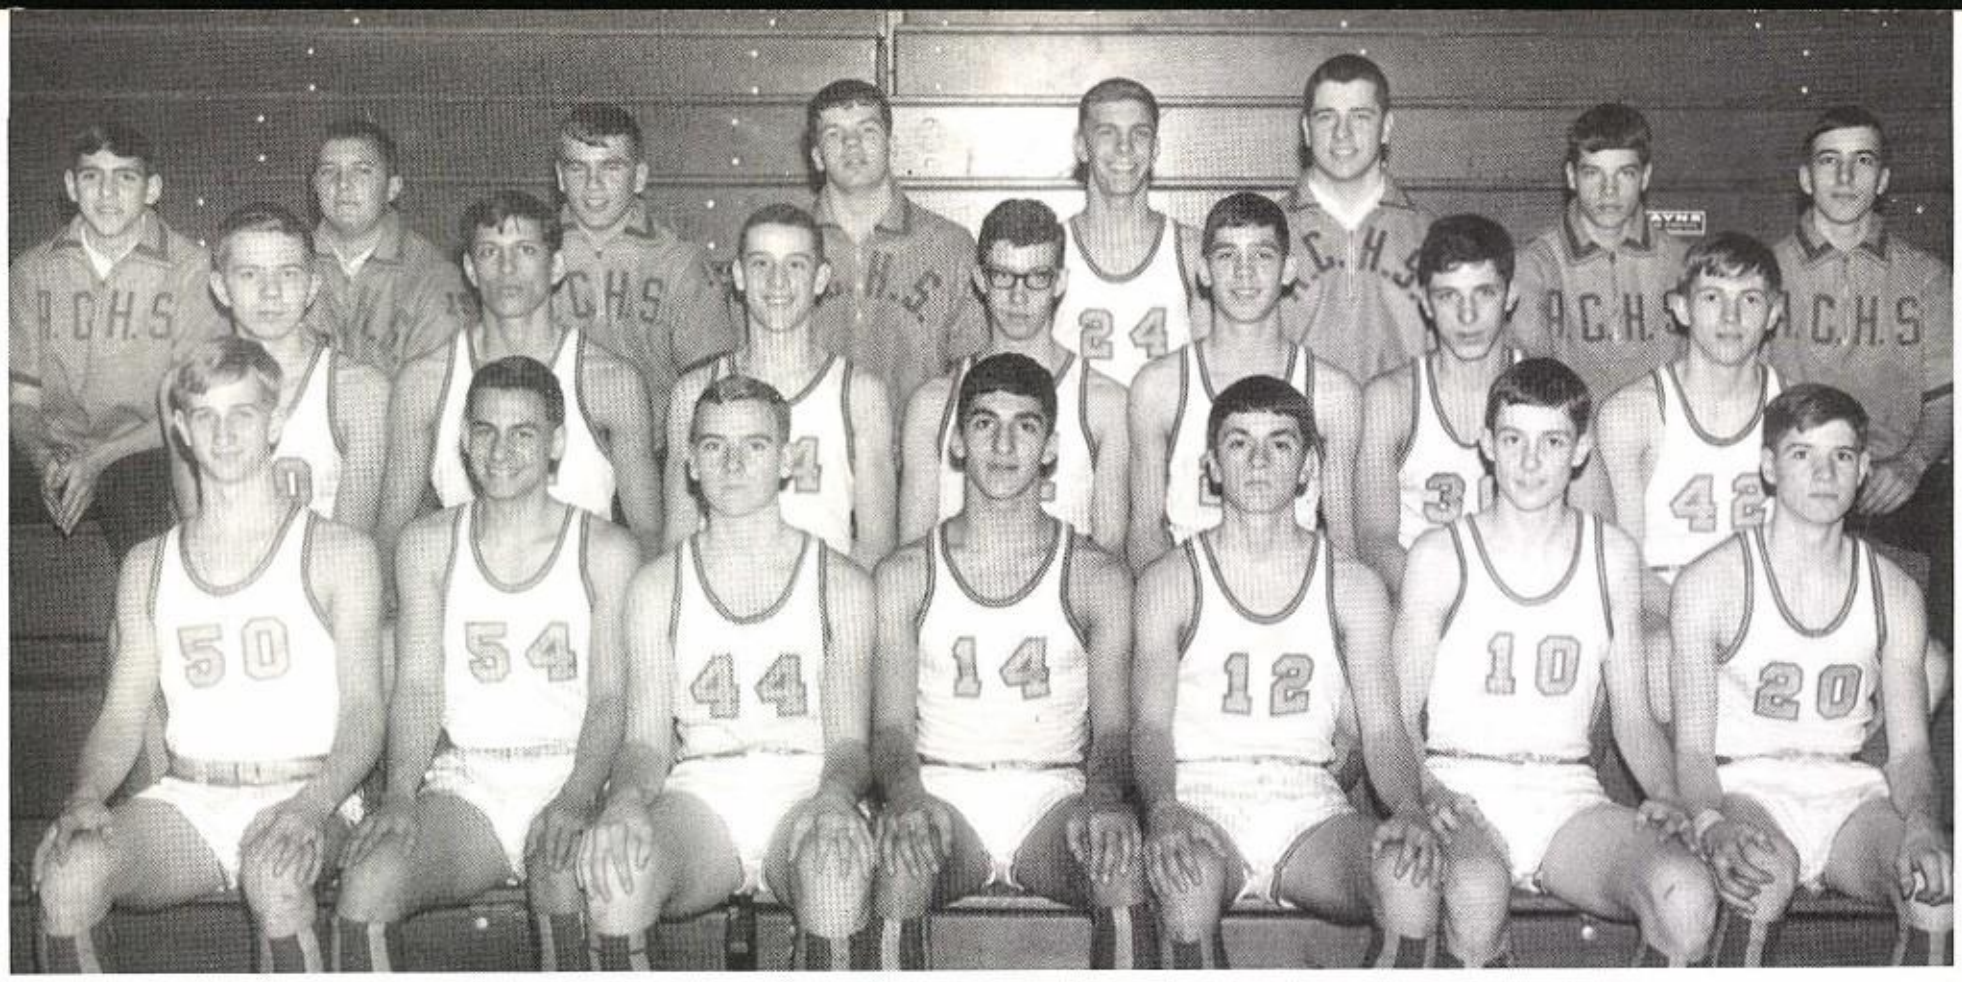
Behind Every

MANAGERS: James Boucher, Zane Stalter—Head Manager, Robert Dodson, John Marr, and Timothy Arnold.

STATISTICIANS-SCOREKEEPERS: James Georgiana—Statistician, David Mock—Scorekeeper, Philip Altiero—Head Statistician, Frank Rimbeck—Scorekeeper.

Winning Team

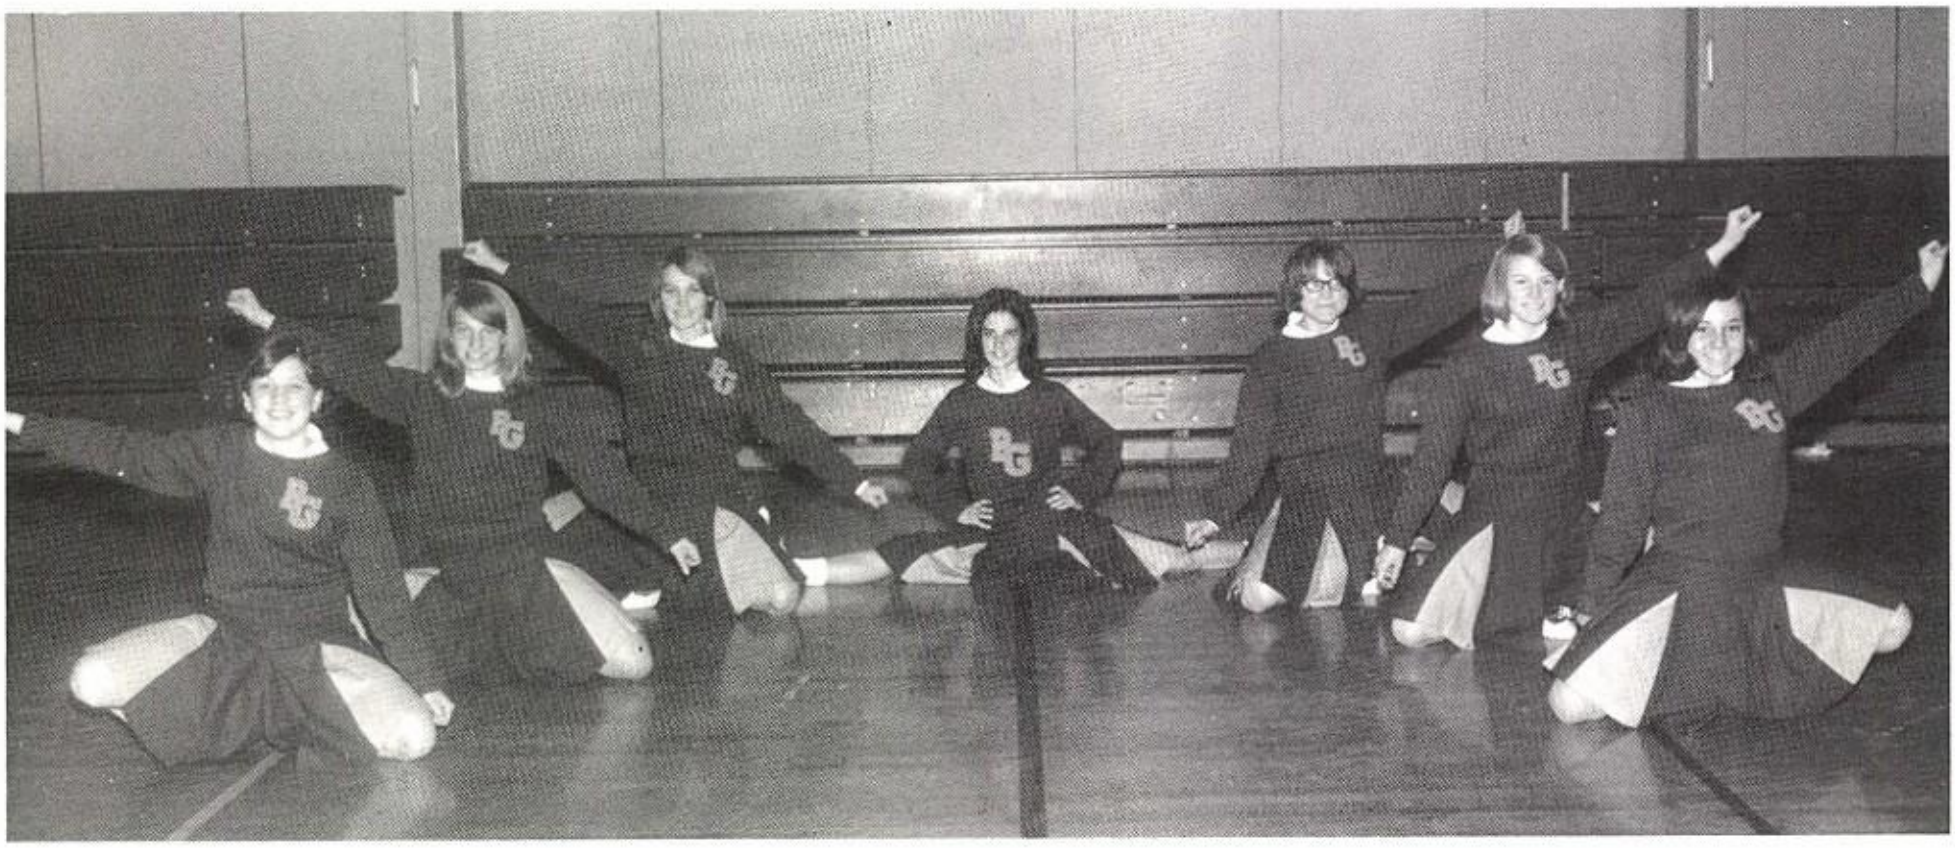
B.G.H.S. fans give our basketball team the support a successful team needs.



The hard working, fast moving Junior Varsity basketball team guarantees Bishop Guilfoyle many winning seasons. Front Row—Jeff Muller, Dave Fiore, John Reilly, Pete Roscia, Bill Shover, Tim Muri, Dave Adams. Second Row—Dave Stehle, Dave Oliver, Mike Dillon, John Sonefelt, Steve Knepper, Joe Laura, Don Runk. Third Row—Jim Georgiana, Pete Naputano, Bernie McLucas, Bob Eger, Steve Yorgy, Mike Leiden, Dan Walter.

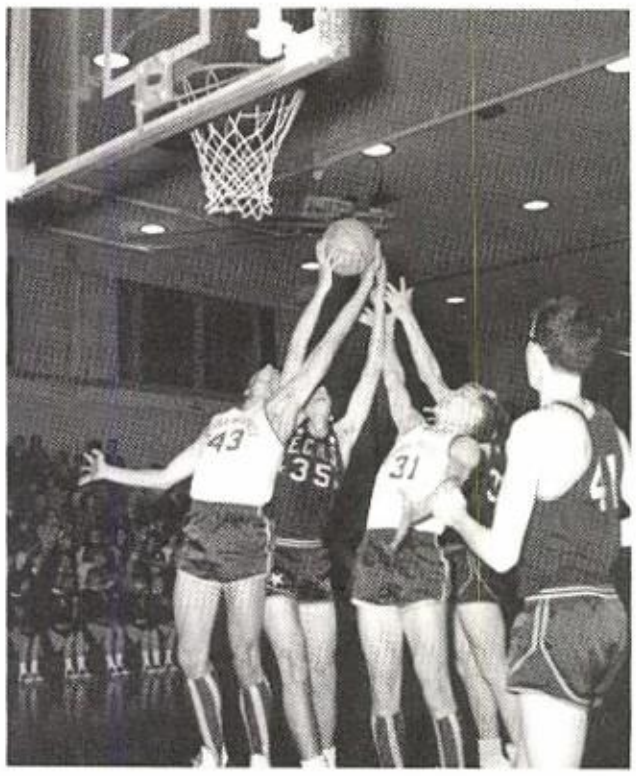
J.V. center Dave Oliver controls the opening tap in the Williamsburg tilt.

You can almost hear J.V. Coach Pacifico's instructions, "You've got to give 100%, 100% of the time."

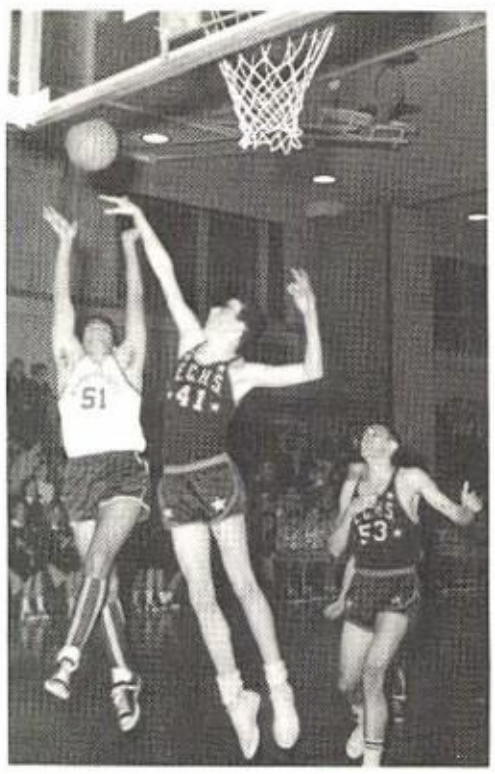


These hard working J.V. Cheerleaders will be highly qualified to fill their upperclassmates' shoes. Left to Right—Debbie Stefula, Leila McGuire, Mary Beth Rudolph—Captain, Patty Bernhart, Therese Muri, Anita Pacifico. Missing—Joanne Lowe.

Lay-ups don't always come so easily especially in the Williamsburg game.



Victories are often decided under the boards.



Two foul shots were Rich Peo's consolation in the Elk County Christian game.

FROSH TEAM, First Row—B. Woods, D. Pierannunzio, J. Langguth, J. Eckenrode, J. McGough. Second Row—G. Schrieber, J. Lang, D. Myers, M. Hoover, E. Rito. Third Row—D. Ciambotti, B. Crucial, D. Steinbeiser, P. Winkelbauer, T. Geishauser, J. Dumm. Missing—B. Bennetti, F. Madden

Tom Geishauser shows his potential in a Frosh victory over Juniata Valley.

Frosh Coach Labriola prepares his "Baby Marauders" for future Varsity competition.

MICHAEL F. SCHAEFER

The answer to the B.G. whisper, "Who's that?" is Mike Schaefer. The blond, blue-eyed senior, a German exchange student, joined our class this past year. Already he has made his mark as a very accurate place kicking specialist, soccer style.

Although he was born in Paderborn, Germany, Mike's family now lives in Munich, where he was enrolled in a Humanities school. He has had six years of Latin and three of Greek and English. Here at B.G., Mike is taking the College Prep Course.

Traveling is not new to him. Mike and his three sisters, Sabena, 5, Barbara, 8, and Birgit, 15, have picked up stakes a number of times, and currently he entertains an interest in Far East travel.

He likes soccer, tennis, football, and milkshakes. Let's raise a toast to a wonderful guy. What'll it be, Mike, chocolate or vanilla?

SENIOR BESTS

From the senior class, a tribute to outstanding seniors—the senior bests. Dorothy Anthony and Raymond Hipp, best athletes; John Peilmeier and Kathleen Robison, most outstanding; Mary Denny and David Goss, most likely to succeed; John McKeon, President, Student Council; Lawrence Savino and Linda Minori, most pleasing personality; Daniel DiLucchio, President, Senior Class.

Proud of our heritage, we have ourselves become part of tomorrow's tradition. Whispering through these pages is the spirit which is the Class of "66".

Laughingly expectant, we embarked upon four years of adventure. Matured by experience, we renew our quest, quietly determined to realize the goals which youthful idealism enkindled within us. We have reached the threshhold of our lives. Now is the time to begin.
